The International Caravaggesque Movement Benedict Nicolson, 1979 The International Caravaggesque Movement Jonathan Bikker, Gianni Papi, Nicola Spinosa, Robilant + Voena, 2005 The International Caravaggesque Movement Robilant + Voena, 2007 Utrecht and the international caravaggesque movement Liesbeth Monica Helmus, 2014 Partant de l'hypothèse selon laquelle les peintres caravaggesques du Nord Utrecht et les Flandres ont donné leur propre interprétation du Caravage et que leurs tableaux sont toujours reconnaissables même lorsqu'ils sont peints à Rome notre séminaire explore dans quelle mesure c'est aussi le cas chez les suiveurs français ou espagnols Une dernière conférence sera dédiée à la place des peintres caravaggesques dans le marché international Caravaggism in Europe Benedict Nicolson, 1990 French, Dutch, and Flemish Caravaggesque Paintings from the Koelliker Collection Collezione Koelliker (Milan, Italy), 2005 French Dutch and Flemish Caravaggesque Paintings from the Koelliker Collection : the International Caravaggesque Movement Jonathan Bikker, Gianni Papi, Nicola Spinosa, 2005 Altarpieces and Their Viewers in the Churches of Rome from Caravaggio to Guido Reni Pamela M. Jones, 2017-07-05 A social history of reception this study focuses on sacred art and Catholicism in Rome during the late sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The five altarpieces examined here were painted by artists who are admired today Caravaggio Guercino and Guido Reni and by the less renowned but once influential Tommaso Laureti and Andrea Comodi By shifting attention from artistic intentionality to reception Pamela Jones reintegrates these altarpieces into the urban fabric of early modern Rome allowing us to see the five paintings anew through the eyes of their original audiences both women and men rich and poor pious and impious Because Italian churchmen relied after the Council of Trent on public altarpieces more than any other type of contemporary painting in their attempts to reform and inspire Catholic society it is on altarpieces that Pamela Jones centers her inquiry Through detailed study of evidence in many genres including not only painting prints and art criticism but also cheap pamphlets drama sermons devotional tracts rules of religious orders pilgrimages rituals diaries and letters Jones shows how various beholders made meaning of the altarpieces in their aesthetic devotional social and charitable dimensions This study presents early modern Catholicism and its art in an entirely new light by addressing the responses of members of all social classes not just elites to art created for the public It also provides a more accurate view of the range of religious ideas that circulated in early modern Rome by bringing to bear both officially sanctioned religious art and literature and unauthorized but widely disseminated cheap pamphlets and prints that were published without the mandatory religious permission On this basis Jones helps to illuminate further the insurmountable problems churchmen faced when attempting to channel the power of sacred art to elicit orthodox responses Caravaggio Lilian H. Zirpolo, 2023-04-05 Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio's life was turbulent and short He was only in his late thirties when he died and yet he managed to achieve tremendous artistic success A native of Caravaggio near Milan he was born in 1571 and moved to Rome after training with Simone Peterzano a pupil of

Caravaggio Howard Hibbard,2018-05-04 Caravaggio was one of the most important Italian painters of the 17th century He was in fact the wellspring of Baroque painting In Hibbard s words Caravaggio s paintings speak to us more personally and more poignantly than any others of the time In this study Howard Hibbard evaluates the work of Caravaggio notorious as a painter assassin hailed by many as an original interpreter of the scriptures a man whose exploration of nature has been likened to that of Galileo

Painting Music in the Sixteenth Century H. Colin Slim,2024-10-28 Professor Slim deals here with the several roles that music can play in the artworks of the Renaissance looking in particular at Italian painting of the 16th century For understandable reasons art historians sometimes neglect the role of music and especially that of musical notation when studying works of art These studies not only identify musical compositions wholly or partially inscribed in paintings and tapestries ceramics prints as well but also seek reasons why these particular musical compositions were included and analyse their relevance to the scene depicted Furthermore as many of these studies show identifying a musical composition especially if it has a text leads to the formation of ideas about iconographical functions and thus augments interpretations of the visual art

M: The Caravaggio Enigma Peter Robb,2011-07-18 M is the name of an enigma In his short and violent life Michaelangelo Merisi from Caravaggio changed art for ever In the process he laid bare his own sexual longing and the brutal realities of his life with shocking frankness Like no painter before him and few since M the man appears in his art As a book about art and life and how they connect there has never been anything quite like it

The Neapolitan Lives and Careers of Netherlandish Immigrant Painters (1575-1655) Marije Osnabrugge,2025-10-01 The seventeenth century was a time of exceptional mobility for Netherlandish artists This mobility had a profound impact on artistic developments stimulating innovation and creativity in the Netherlands as well as abroad Whereas most artists undertook a relatively short study trip others decided to settle down and shape their life in a new environment This study traces the integration process as artists and as migrants in general of Aert Mytens Louis Finson Abraham Vinck Hendrick De Somer and Matthias Stom in Naples between 1575 and 1655 Departing from the idea that the experience of every migrant is specific to their background and skills The Neapolitan Lives and Careers of Netherlandish Immigrant Painters 1575 1655 examines the challenges each of these five artists faced the choices they made and the opportunities they grasped The dynamics of art and society in Naples the bustling capital of the Spanish viceroyalty

Caravaggio Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, 2006 This volume considers Caravaggio's revolutionary realism from a range of perspectives presenting new avenues for research by a plurality of leading scholars First it advances our understanding of Caravaggio's relationship with the new science of observation championed by Galileo Second it examines afresh the theoretical nature and artistic means of Caravaggio's seemingly direct realism Third it extends the horizons of research on Caravaggio's complex intellectual and social milieu between high and low cultures Genevieve Warwick is Senior Lecturer in the Art History department at the University of Glasgow On Depiction: Selected Writings on Art Avigdor Arikha, 2019-08-25 A marvellous book which teaches us how to see There is not a word out of place And the author's seriousness allows us to feel his full passion what really matters for him This book will provide me lasting company and I will often look in its pages for backing for my own judgements Jean Starobinski When a great painter also happens to be an intelligent and cultivated one his observations on art count a hundred times more than a critic's or a historian's do A man's knowledge of his own craft is both irreplaceable and indispensable Simon Leys Throughout his whole development I have never ceased to admire the acuteness of his vision and his faultless insight into the art of the past Samuel Beckett Avigdor Arikha was one of the most important artists of the twentieth century He was born in Romania to German speaking Romanian Jewish parents and spent most of his life in Paris A talented child he started drawing early on During the Second World War he was deported to a concentration camp in the Ukraine where he drew the horrors he witnessed These drawings saved his life During the 1950s he established himself in Paris and was enjoying a successful career as an abstract painter In 1965 a Caravaggio exhibition prompted him to convert to drawing from life He stopped using colour until 1973 when he started again to paint He worked with a religious almost war like intensity until his death Arikha was also an erudite and passionate scholar endowed with a deep understanding of the history of art and its techniques well versed in world history and fascinated by science He wrote many essays and curated important exhibitions of masters such as Poussin Vel zquez and Ingres In this collection of essays that he wrote between 1965 and 1994 Arikha expounds on art and artists Mantegna Vel zquez Poussin David Ingres Degas Matisse and more technique seeing and the state of culture in his day which one could argue is no more hopeful today almost thirty years later

The

Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen NatashaT. Seaman, 2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master s simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio s motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen s appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen s largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen s paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio s Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio s paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen s works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist s response to them
