The City Connection Migration And Family Interdependence In The Philippines:

The City Connection Lillian Trager, 1988 Evaluates migration in light of the migrant's social network Women Workers, Migration and Family in Sarawak Cheng Sim Hew, 2003-08-27 Based on research among the women of the Bidayuh people in Sarawak all of them first generation migrant wage workers this book explores the changes in women's lifestyles from traditional rural lifestyles to modern urban ones Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang, B. Yeoh, 2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the inter relationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes Exploring Contemporary Migration Paul Boyle, Keith Halfacree, Vaughan Robinson, 2014-06-11 Exploring Contemporary Migration provides the first comprehensive introduction to the various aspects of population migration in both the developed and the developing worlds Some of the most important quantitative and qualitative methods used for the description and analysis of migration are presented in a clearly structured and accessible way The various theoretical approaches used to explain the complex patterns of migration are also summarised These patterns are then explored through the use of specific migration related themes employment stage in the life course quality of life societal engineering violence and persecution and the role of culture Exploring Contemporary Migration is written in a user friendly accessible style appealing to undergraduate students of population geography and social science students taking a population module This text will also be valuable reading to those researchers and academics concerned with gaining a broad understanding of the dynamics and patterns of contemporary population Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Artemio R. Guillermo, 2012 The Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Third Edition contains a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries Migration and Economy Lillian Trager, 2005-10-13 Trager and her coauthors focus on migration not as a single event but as a dynamic process that responds to and is shaped by broader economic cultural and social forces Individual essays consider issues of international and internal migration of voluntary migration and forced movements due to civil conflicts and environmental degradation and of macro level forces and micro level institutions The authors investigate a wide variety of types of mobility describe transnational and multilocal networks through which remittances and other flows take place focus on migrants as active agents and examine the impacts of ethnicity and assimilation They offer original studies on Mexico Puerto Rico West Africa Kazakhstan and Mozambique This new volume will be a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners in development anthropology migration studies and international planning and policy The Philippines James A. Tyner, 2010-12-22 Nearly five million migrant workers from the Philippines are employed in over 190 countries and territories They work as doctors and domestic helpers engineers and entertainers seamstresses and surveyors It is through their collective labor that the Philippines has assumed a global presence For over five centuries the Philippines has been integrated into the world economy Only recently however has the Philippines been a pro active agent in the production of a global economy Since the 1970s the Philippine state in connection with myriad private institutions has recruited trained marketed and deployed a mobile work force Annually approximately one million migrant workers travel to all corners of the world The Philippines seeks to understand how the Philippines has become the world s largest exporter of government sponsored temporary contract labor and in the process has dramatically reshaped both the processes of globalization and also our understanding of globalization as concept

The Migration Experience in Africa Jonathan Baker,Tade Akin Aina,1995 South Africa by Christian M Rogerson

Rethinking Empowerment Jane L. Parpart,Shirin M. Rai,Kathleen A. Staudt,2003-08-29 Rethinking Empowerment looks at the changing role of women in developing countries and calls for a new approach to empowerment An approach that adopts a more nuanced feminist interpretation of power and em power ment recognises that local empowerment is always embedded in regional national and global contexts pays attention to institutional structures and politics and acknowledges that empowerment is both a process and an outcome Moreover the book warns that an obsession with measurement rather than process can undermine efforts to foster transformative and empowering outcomes It concludes that power must be restored as the centrepiece of empowerment Only then will the term and its advocates provide meaningful ammunition for dealing with the challenges of an increasingly unequal and often sexist global local world

Empowering Migrant Women Leah Briones,2017-03-02 Based on insights from Filipina experiences of domestic work in Paris and Hong Kong this volume breaks through the polarized thinking and migration centric policy action on the protection of migrant women domestic workers from abuse to link migrants rights and victimization with livelihood migration and development The book contextualizes agency and rights in the workers capability to secure a livelihood in the global political economy and is instrumental in making the problem of migrant women workers empowerment both a migration and development agenda The volume is essential reading for social scientists bureaucrats and non governmental political activists interested in the protection of the rights and livelihoods of migrants It will also appeal to migration and feminist scholars who have yet to adopt the contribution of critical development studies in the analysis of low skilled female labour migration

Mobility, Labour Migration and Border Controls in Asia A. Kaur,I. Metcalfe,2006-05-02 One of the biggest challenges facing the Asia Pacific region in the 21st century is the large scale cross border movement of people This book explores sovereignty security issues and border management strategies of major states in the face of intensified transnational economic and social processes and the expanding global governance regime

Cultures in Contact Dirk Hoerder,2002-11-21 Analysis of migrations regional interregional continent wide and global and the resulting cultural interactions and societal changes

Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul,2017-09-28 Explores how global markets middlemen and destination aspirations drive the stepwise migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers      Made in the Philippines James A. Tyner, 2004-08-02 The Philippines is the world's largest exporter of temporary contract labor with a huge 800 000 workers a year being deployed on either six month or two year contracts This labor migration is highly regulated by the government private and non governmental non private organizations Tyner argues that migrants are socially constructed or made by these parties and that migrants in turn become political resources Employing a post structural feminist perspective Tyner questions the very ontology of migration      Rural Women in Urban China Tamara Jacka, 2014-12-18 Based on in depth ethnographic research and using an approach that seeks to understand how migration is experienced by the migrants themselves this is a fascinating study of the experiences of women in rural China who joined the vast migration to Beijing and other cities at the end of the twentieth century It focuses on the experiences of rural urban migrants the particular ways in which they talk about those experiences and how those experiences affect their sense of identity Through first hand accounts of actual migrant workers the author provides valuable insights into how rural women negotiate rural urban experiences how they respond to migration and life in the city and how that experience shapes their world view values and relations with others The book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gender and social change and of the ways in which globalization and modernity are experienced at the most personal level      Global Filipinos Deirdre McKay, 2012-06-07 Contract workers from the Philippines make up one of the world's largest movements of temporary labor migrants Deirdre McKay follows Filipino migrants from one rural community to work sites overseas and then home again Focusing on the experiences of individuals McKay interrogates current approaches to globalization multi sited research subjectivity and the village itself She shows that rather than weakening village ties temporary labor migration gives the village a new global dimension created in and through the relationships imaginations and faith of its members in its potential as a site for a better future      Handbook of Chinese Migration Robyn R. Iredale, Fei Guo, 2015-12-18 The recent unprecedented scale of Chinese migration has had far reaching consequences Within China many villages have been drained of their young and most able workers cities have been swamped by the floating population and many rural migrants have been unable to integrate into urban society Internationally the Chinese have become increasingly more mobile This Handbook provides a unique collection of new and original research on internal and international Chinese migration and its effects on the sense of belonging of migrants      Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world
