Legendary for his clarity directness and lack of pretension the eighth century hermit poet Cold Mountain Han Shan is a major figure in the history of Chinese literature and has been a profound influence on writers and readers worldwide

Writers such as Charles Frazier and Gary Snyder studied his poetry and Jack Kerouac's Dharma Bums is dedicated to Han Shan

1 B storied cliffs were the fortune I cast bird trails beyond human tracks what surrounds my yard white clouds nesting dark rocks I've lived here quite a few years and always seen the spring water change tell those people with tripods and bells empty names are no damn good

71 someone sits in a mountain gorge cloud robe sunset tassels handful of fragrances he'd share the road is long and hard regretful and doubtful old and unaccomplished the crowd calls him crippled he stands alone steadfast

205 my place is on Cold Mountain perched on a cliff beyond the circuit of affliction images leave no trace when they vanish I roam the whole galaxy from here lights and shadows flash across my mind not one dharma comes before me since I found the magic pearl I can go anywhere everywhere it's perfect

Cold Mountain A mountain man lives under thatch before his gate carts and horses are rare the forest is quiet but partial to birds the streams are wide and home to fish with his son he picks wild fruit with his wife he hoes between rocks what does he have at home a shelf full of nothing but books

The Collected Songs of Cold Mountain Han Shan, Red Pine, 1983-08 A Zen Taoist poetry classic in a handsome Chinese English format This definitive translation of Han Shan's poetry appears in a bilingual Chinese English format Included are extensive notes a preface by renowned translator Red Pine a findings list and photographs of the cave and surrounding area where Han Shan Cold Mountain lived

Cold Mountain is one of the most revered poets in China He was a Taoist Buddhist hermit who begged for food at temples often sang and drank with cowherds and became an immortal figure in the history of Chinese literature and Zen His poems were written twelve hundred years ago on the rocks trees and temple walls of China's Tientai Mountains This revised edition also includes poems by Han Shan's colleagues

Pickup Shih te and Big Stick Feng kan translated here for the first time As Red Pine begins his Preface If China's literary critics were put in charge of organizing a tea for their country's greatest poets of the past Cold Mountain would not be on many invitation lists Yet no other poet occupies the altars of China's temples and shines where his statue often stands alongside immortals and bodhisattvas. He is equally revered in Korea and Japan. And when Jack Kerouac dedicated The Dharma Bums to him in 1958, Cold Mountain became the guardian angel of a generation of Westerners as well. Reviews of Red Pine's Collected Songs of Cold Mountain. The translator's preface describes his rendition of the life of Cold Mountain, offering an excellent historical and philosophical context for the simple yet profound poems attributed to the poet. Library Journal: These are poems one must taste fully and drink whole. The poems of Han Shan read like a journal or memoir and they often work as Zen koans, challenging the mind to go beyond the words and reason. Parabola: Red Pine has given us the first full collection of Han Shan's songs in an idiom that is clear, graceful, and neutral enough to last. His translations are accurate and mirror the music of the originals. The Collected Songs of Cold Mountain is a considerable performance and a truly valuable book. Thanks to Copper Canyon's high standards of bookmaking, it is beautiful to hold and behold; thanks to Red Pine's care, it will survive as the definitive text of Han Shan in English for many years. It belongs on the shelf of everyone with an interest in poetry and should be opened often. The Bloomsbury Review: An exquisite publication that captures the Taoist practice of passionate attention of being still inside and relaxed in the comforts and discomforts around you, going nowhere else. We discover this in the poet's vision and spirit, in the precision and balance of the translator's scholarship and heart, and in the elegant wilderness of the bookmaker's art around them. On every level, this is a beautiful book. Judges' comments on awarding the WESTAF Award in Translation: Cold Mountain's colloquial poetry sounds like inspired raps, marvelously direct with skips, jumps, verbal nudges, and abrupt revelations. The volume is beautifully produced with a long and careful introduction. This is an indispensable book. The Berkeley Monthly: More than anyone else, Red Pine has made Han Shan's spontaneous poems accessible to Western readers. In this new expanded edition, invaluable notes and an extensive new critical preface provide a contextual awareness not just for the poems but for their sources in Buddhist and Confucian culture. Inquiring Mind: Red Pine is one of the world's leading translators of Chinese literary and religious texts. His other translations include Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching (ISBN 9781556592904) and Poems of the Masters: China's Classic Anthology of Tang and Sung Dynasty Verse (ISBN 9781556591952). The Complete Cold Mountain by Kazuaki Tanahashi, Peter Levitt, 2018-06-26. A fresh translation and new envisioning of the most accessible and beloved of all classic Chinese poetry. Welcome to the magical, windswept world of Cold Mountain. These poems from the literary riches of China have long been celebrated by cultures of both East and West and continue to be revered as among the most inspiring and enduring works of poetry worldwide. This groundbreaking new translation presents the full corpus of poetry traditionally associated with Hanshan, Cold Mountain, and sheds light on its origins and authorship like never before. Kazuaki Tanahashi and Peter Levitt honor the contemplative Buddhist elements of this classic collection of poems while revealing Hanshan's famously jubilant humor, deep love of solitude in nature, and overwhelming warmth of heart. In addition, this translation features the full Chinese text of the original poems and a wealth of fascinating supplements, including traditional historical poetry to the Western world is a significant event in the history of cross cultural communication From the simple imitation of poetic techniques to the acceptance and identification of key poetic concepts the Tang poetry translators gradually constructed a classic Chinese style in modern American poetry Hence the traditional Chinese culture represented by Tang poetry spread more widely in the English speaking world producing a more lasting impact on societies and cultures outside China and demonstrating the poetry's ability to transcend the boundaries of time region nationality and culture Due to different cultural backgrounds the Tang poets or poems admired most by Western readers may not necessarily receive high acclaim in China Sometimes language barriers and cultural differences make it impossible to represent certain allusions or cultural and ethnic concepts correctly during the translation process However in recent decades the translation of Tang poetry has evolved considerably in both quantity and quality As culture is manifested in language and language is part of culture the translation of Tang poetry has allowed Western scholars to gain an unprecedented understanding of China and Chinese culture

The Diamond Sutra Red Pine, 2009-03-01 A masterful translation of the Diamond Sutra an essential Zen Buddhist scripture with insightful commentary and helpful historical context Zen Buddhism is often said to be a practice of mind to mind transmission without reliance on texts in fact some great teachers forbid their students to read or write But Buddhism has also inspired some of the greatest philosophical writings of any religion and two such works lie at the center of Zen The Heart Sutra which monks recite all over the world and The Diamond Sutra said to contain answers to all questions of delusion and dualism This is the Buddhist teaching on the perfection of wisdom and cuts through all obstacles on the path of practice As Red Pine explains The Diamond Sutra may look like a book but it's really the body of the Buddha It's also your body my body all possible bodies But it's a body with nothing inside and nothing outside It doesn't exist in space or time Nor is it a construct of the mind It's no mind And yet because it's no mind it has room for compassion This book is the offering of no mind born of compassion for all suffering beings Of all the sutras that teach this teaching this is the diamond

Daughters of Emptiness Beata Grant, 2012-06-04 Women played major roles in the history of Buddhist China but given the paucity of the remaining records their voices have all but faded In Daughters of Emptiness Beata Grant renders a great service by recovering and translating the enchanting verse by turns assertive observant devout of forty-eight nuns from sixteen centuries of imperial China This selection of poems along with the brief biographical accounts that accompany them affords readers a glimpse into the extraordinary diversity and sometimes startling richness of these women's lives. A sample poem for this stunning collection: The sequence of seasons naturally pushes forward. Suddenly I am startled by the ending of the year. Lifting my eyes I catch sight of the winter crows. Calling mournfully as if wanting to complain. The sunlight is cold rather than gentle. Spreading over the four corners like a cloud. A cold wind blows fitfully in from the north. Its sad whistling filling courtyards and houses. Head raised I gaze in the direction of Spring. But Spring pays no attention to me at all. Time a galloping colt glimpsed through a crack. The tap of Death at the door has its predestined time. How should I not know one who has left the world. And for whom floating clouds are already familiar. In the garden there grows a rosary plum tree. Whose sworn friendship makes it possible to endure. Chan Master Jingnuo What Kind of Ancestor Do You Want to Be? John Hausdoerffer,,Brooke Parry Hecht,Melissa K. Nelson,Katherine Kassouf Cummings,2021-05-24 As we face an ever more fragmented world What Kind of Ancestor Do You Want to Be demands a return to the force of lineage to spiritual social and ecological connections across time. It sparks a myriad of ageless yet urgent questions. How will I be remembered? What traditions do I want to continue? What cycles do I want to break? What new systems do I want to initiate for those yet to be born? How do we endure? Published in association with the Center for Humans and Nature and interweaving essays interviews and poetry this book brings together a thoughtful community of Indigenous and other voices including Linda Hogan Wendell Berry Winona LaDuke Vandana Shiva Robin Kimmerer and Wes Jackson to explore what we want to give to our descendants. It is an offering to teachers who have come before and to those who will follow a tool for healing our relationships with ourselves with each other and with our most powerful ancestors the lands and waters that give and sustain all life On Trails Robert Moor,2017-07-04 In 2009 while thru hiking the Appalachian Trail Robert Moor began to wonder about the paths that lie beneath our feet. How do they form? Why do some improve over time while others fade? What makes us follow or strike off on our own? Over the course of the next seven years Moor traveled the globe exploring trails of all kinds from the miniscule to the massive. He learned the tricks of master trail builders hunted down long lost Cherokee trails and traced the origins of our road networks and the Internet. In each chapter Moor interweaves his adventures with findings from science history philosophy and nature writing combining the nomadic joys of Peter Matthiessen with the eclectic wisdom of Lewis Hyde's The Gift. Throughout Moor reveals how this single topic the oft overlooked trail sheds new light on a wealth of age old questions. How does order emerge out of chaos? How did animals first crawl forth from the seas and spread across continents? How has humanity's relationship with nature and technology shaped the world around us? And ultimately how does each of us pick a path through life? With a breathtaking arc that spans from the dawn of animal life to the digital era On Trails is a book that makes us see our world our history our species and our ways of life anew. Book jacket flap Zen Baggage Bill Porter,2009-03-01 In the spring of 2006 Bill Porter traveled through the heart of China from Beijing to Hong Kong on a pilgrimage to sites associated with the first six patriarchs of Zen. Zen Baggage
