Rivers are not mere geographical features they are conduits of history carriers of culture and architects of ecosystems From the towering peaks of the Himalayas to the sprawling deltas of the Amazon each river has carved its narrative etching indelible stories into the geographies it traverses As we embark on this literary exploration let us navigate the currents of time immersing ourselves in the narratives that have unfolded along the banks of the great rivers of our world The tales woven into the fabric of this collection span the continents from the ancient cradle of Mesopotamia where the Tigris and Euphrates once whispered to Sumerian poets to the expansive waterways of the Amazon where the rainforest hums with the secrets of the mighty river We delve into the mythologies of the Ganges sacred and revered carrying the spiritual aspirations of millions within its gentle ripples The Nile with its storied past whispers echoes of pharaohs and pyramids a testament to the ingenuity of ancient civilizations

The Story of Earth Robert M. Hazen, 2012-04-26 Hailed by The New York Times for writing with wonderful clarity about science that effortlessly teaches as it zips along nationally bestselling author Robert M Hazen offers a radical new approach to Earth history in this intertwined tale of the planet's living and nonliving spheres With an astrobiologist's imagination a historian's perspective and a naturalist's eye Hazen calls upon twenty first century discoveries that have revolutionized geology and enabled scientists to envision Earth's many iterations in vivid detail from the mile high lava tides of its infancy to the early organisms responsible for more than two thirds of the mineral varieties beneath our feet Lucid controversial and on the cutting edge of its field The Story of Earth is popular science of the highest order A sweeping rip roaring yarn of immense scope from the birth of the elements in the stars to meditations on the future habitability of our world Science

The Columbia Stewart H. Holbrook, 2016-06-15 The Columbia commemorates the disciplining and conversion of a wilderness river from a water passageway to a powerhouse and a source of irrigation Here is the story of its explorers who came by boat and by foot the bickering and battles between Hudson's Bay Company and Astor's fur trappers the settlers that turned politicians to keep the Oregon Territory in the U S and to make two states out of it the coming of steamboats the potent force of the railways and later the highways The Columbia follows the story of the canals locks and dams which flooded old landmarks to give new pioneers farm lands and electricity and the story of the settlement of the Pacific Northwest

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920-2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies The American Short Story Handbook James Nagel, 2015-03-02 This is a concise yet comprehensive treatment of the American short story that includes an historical overview of the topic as well as discussion of notable American authors and individual stories from Benjamin Franklin's The Speech of Miss Polly Baker in 1747 to The Joy Luck Club Includes a selection of writers chosen not only for their contributions of individual stories but for bodies of work that advanced the boundaries of short fiction including Washington Irving Sarah Orne Jewett Stephen Crane Jamaica Kincaid and Tim O'Brien Addresses the ways in which American oral storytelling and other narrative traditions were integral to the formation and flourishing of the short story genre Written in accessible and engaging prose for students at all levels by a renowned literary scholar to illuminate an important genre that has received short shrift in scholarly literature of the last century Includes a glossary defining the most common terms used in literary history and in critical discussions of fiction and a bibliography of works for further study
