Lloyd, 1978-06-17 Sir Henry Royce Peter Reese, 2022-05-12 It's hard to imagine a history of British engineering without Rolls Royce there would be no Silver Ghost no Merlin for the Spitfire no Alcock and Brown Rolls Royce is one of the most recognisable brands in the world But what of the man who designed them The youngest of five children Frederick Henry Royce was born into almost Dickensian circumstances the family business failed by the time he was 4 his father died in a Greenwich poorhouse when he was 9 and he only managed two fragmented years of formal schooling But he made all of it count In Sir Henry Royce Establishing Rolls Royce from Motor Cars to Aero Engines acclaimed aeronautical historian Peter Reese explores the life of an almost forgotten genius from his humble beginnings to his greatest achievements Impeccably researched and featuring almost 100 illustrations this is the remarkable story of British success on a global stage The Birth of Military Aviation Hugh Driver, 1997 A survey of the development of British military aviation from 1903 to 1914 revealing the consequences of its annexation by the state as a branch of armaments as an underlying cause of aircraft inadequacies on the outbreak of war A mine of information drawing on an impressive range of archives It will become an important point of reference ENGLISH HISTORICAL REVIEW This book aims to demonstrate how the crisis evident in British military aviation in the early years of the First World War was inherent in the entire development of aviation in the years preceding the conflict After outlining the work of the early pioneers and the growth of an aviation industry as a branch of armaments Dr Driver considers the objectives of the War Office in increasingly seeking to divert design development to their research establishment at Farnborough He shows how the resultant virtual state monopoly in design and procurement had disastrous consequences for aircraft innovation and development suffocating both competition and initiative and leading to the maintenance of inadequate aircraft by the Royal Flying Corps following the outbreak of war The continuing dispute and its culmination in the Fokker Scourge controversy of 1915 1916 graphically characterise the strained development of military industrial relations in this area Dr HUGH DRIVER gained an MA in War Studies from King's College London and a D Phil in modern history at Oriel College Oxford
