The Ice House... A History

Don't fight the feeling. Get ready to Have a Good Time!

Opened in 1959, the Ice House has brought the finest in live entertainment to the San Gabriel Valley for over 25 years. During that time, over two million people have "discovered" the stars of today and tomorrow in our intimate showroom.

In the 1960's Folk Music was in its prime and The Ice House was America's top folk club with acts coming from all over the country to play and sing.

The 1970's found the emphasis switching to comedy as top stars such as Lily Tomlin, The Goodbye Brothers and Gallagher recorded albums here. As a matter of fact, over 50 live albums have been recorded at the Ice House.

The 1980's find The Ice House hotter than ever with the addition of our restaurant "COMCO" and Top 40 Dance Club "Footies."

So... thanks for making the journey to our little club located "the wrong way on a one way street in an alley in Pasadena." Now you're part of history, too!
