The Humanity of Christ and the Healing of the Dysfunction of the Human Spirit Donald L. Alexander, 2015-08-13 The book represents a personal quest in what Anselm referred to as faith seeking understanding The primary focus centers on proposing an interpretation of the nature and function of the human spirit and its relationship to the divine spirit and the living of a godly Christian life Thus the book has a dual concern namely an academic one and a spiritual one The undergirding premise is that apart of the human spirit the divine spirit is personally unknowable This premise contains the following supporting concepts First the core of human personhood resides in the human spirit and constitutes the unique capacity for personal self relatedness Second as the result of humanity's idolatrous displacement of God a radical reversal occurred with the human spirit When restored to its original relationship with the divine spirit the human spirit as James Loder writes is called out of its futility and perversity into the light and truth of the divine spirit

God's Wounds Jeff B Pool, 2011-07-28 God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume II Evil and Divine Suffering is the second of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of the symbol those implicit attestations that permit the possibility of divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation The author investigates two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies normally attest 1 divine grief or suffering due to human sin or betrayal by the beloved human and 2 divine self sacrifice or suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery so as to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

The Worldview of Personalism Jan Olof Bengtsson, 2006-11-02 A comprehensive and detailed account of the history of personalism the system of thought that maintains the primacy and uniqueness of the human or divine person on the basis that reality only has meaning through the conscious mind

The ^AMoral Argument David Baggett, Jerry Walls, 2019-10-01 This book explores the fertile history of the moral argument for the existence of God The argument has been the topic of numerous Gifford lecturers and the work on the moral argument by such luminaries often represented the apex of their academic careers The authors show that despite their disagreements and different emphases these thinkers agreed that a broad array of moral facts and phenomena point to a theistic world

Hallowed Be Thy Name Jason Goroncy, 2013-03-28 This book fills a noticeable gap in Forsyth studies It provides readers interested in the thought of Forsyth with a way of reading and critiquing his corpus and that in a way that takes due account of and elucidates the theological philosophical and historical locale of his thought Goroncy explores whether the notion of hallowing provides a profitable lens through which to read and evaluate Forsyth s soteriology He suggests that the hallowing of God s name is for Forsyth the way whereby God both justifies himself and claims creation for divine service This book proposes that reading Forsyth s corpus as essentially an exposition of the first petition of the Lord s Prayer is an invitation to better comprehend not only his soteriology but also by extension his broader theological vision and interests

British Idealism: A History W. J. Mander, 2011-05-12 W J Mander presents the first ever synoptic history of British Idealism the philosophical school which dominated English language philosophy from the 1860s through to the early years of the following century Offering detailed examination of the origins growth development and decline of this mode of thinking British Idealism A History restores to its proper place this now almost wholly forgotten period of philosophical history Through clear explanation of its characteristic concepts and doctrines and paying close attention to the published works of its philosophers the volume provides a full length history of this vital school for those wishing to fill a gap in their knowledge of the history of British Philosophy while its detailed notes and bibliography will guide the more dedicated scholar who wishes to examine further their distinctive brand of philosophy By covering all major philosophers involved in the movement not merely the most famous ones like Bradley Green McTaggart and Bosanquet but the lesser known figures like the Caird brothers Henry Jones A S Pringle Pattison and R B Haldane and by looking at all branches of philosophy not just the familiar topics of ethics political thought and metaphysics but also the less well documented work on logic religion aesthetics and the history of philosophy British Idealism A History brings out the movement s complex living pattern of unity and difference something which other more superficial accounts have tended to obscure

Earnest Enquirers After Truth Bernard E Jones, 2013-10-18 First published in 1970 Bernard E Jones s selection of Gifford lectures includes excerpts from the writings of over ninety scholars who occupied a Gifford Chair between 1888 and 1968 Lord Gifford had asked his lecturers to be honest to God insisting that they should be earnest enquirers after truth and had always envisaged the lectures being published Dr Jones s anthology is arranged under headings suggested by phrases from Lord Gifford s will The selection which includes names such as William James A N Whitehead Temple Barth Brunner Bultmann Niebuhr and Tillich was made in such a way that the reader would be able to really grasp what natural theology is about Bernard Ewart Jones served as a Methodist minister before being appointed to the Lewins Chair of Philosophy at his old college Hartley Victoria Manchester He was awarded a doctorate by the University of Leeds in 1966 for his thesis on The Concept of Natural Theology in Gifford Lectures

Philosophical Idealism and Christian Belief Alan P.F. Sell, 2006-09-01 There is now renewed and growing interest in post Hegelian idealism which was in its heyday at the end of the nineteenth century This book is concerned with the religious and socio ethical aspects in the writings of selected idealists It addresses the question was post Hegelian philosophical idealism in its friendliest guise more a help than a hindrance to the expression of Christian convictions and the articulation of Christian doctrines In pursuit of an answer the author discusses the writings of seven British idealists who if not in every case entirely doctrinally orthodox were by no means unkindly disposed towards the Christian faith T H Green Edward Caird J R Illingworth Henry Jones A S Pringle Pattison C C J Webb and A E Taylor The book opens with an account of the formative intellectual influences upon the seven idealists and their consequent philosophical positions There follow chapters on God ethics and society and Christian doctrine The conclusion passes some positive and negative judgments upon post Hegelian idealism in so far as it bears upon or expresses Christian belief It also broaches the underlying question of the method of Christian thought vis vis the general intellectual environment
