The Indignant Generation Lawrence P. Jackson, 2013-03-31 Recovering the lost history of a crucial era in African American literature The Indignant Generation is the first narrative history of the neglected but essential period of African American literature between the Harlem Renaissance and the civil rights era The years between these two indispensable epochs saw the communal rise of Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks Ralph Ellison Lorraine Hansberry James Baldwin and many other influential black writers While these individuals have been duly celebrated little attention has been paid to the political and artistic milieu in which they produced their greatest works With this commanding study Lawrence Jackson recalls the lost history of a crucial era Looking at the tumultuous decades surrounding World War II Jackson restores the indignant quality to a generation of African American writers shaped by Jim Crow segregation the Great Depression the growth of American communism and an international wave of decolonization He also reveals how artistic collectives in New York Chicago and Washington fostered a sense of destiny and belonging among diverse and disenfranchised peoples As Jackson shows through contemporary documents the years that brought us Their Eyes Were Watching God Native Son and Invisible Man also saw the rise of African American literary criticism by both black and white critics Fully exploring the cadre of key African American writers who triumphed in spite of segregation The Indignant Generation paints a vivid portrait of American intellectual and artistic life in the mid twentieth century

Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God & Other Sermons Jonathan Edwards, 2018-10-11 Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God combines vivid imagery of Hell with observations of the world and citations of the scripture It is

Edwards most famous written work is a fitting representation of his preaching style and is widely studied by Christians and historians providing a glimpse into the theology of the Great Awakening of c 1730 1755 The sermon emphasizes the belief that Hell is a real place Edwards hoped that the imagery and language of his sermon would awaken audiences to the horrific reality that he believed awaited them should they continue without calling on Christ to be saved The underlying point is that God has given humanity a chance to confess their sins Edwards says that it is the mere will of God that keeps wicked men from the depths of Hell This act of restraint has given humanity a chance to mend their ways and return to Christ
