Davis Bunn, Isabella Bunn, 2004-09-01 Davis and his wife Isabella are continuing the historical saga of a pivotal time in America's past with descendants of those courageous Acadians In The Innocent Libertine the impulsive young American Abigail Aldridge becomes increasingly outraged by the chasm between her Christian ideals and the plight of the poor A well intentioned social outreach puts her right in the middle of disaster which turns into a scandal and soon she is on a ship headed back to America The broad expanse of the American landscape and an encounter with a brilliant young scholar open Abigail's heart to a new understanding of her divine destiny The sequel to the bestselling The Solitary Envoy

Overland Monthly, 1923      Outback and Out West Tom Lynch, 2022-11 Outback and Out West examines the ecological consequences of a settler colonial imaginary by comparing expressions of settler colonialism in the literature of the American West and Australian Outback Tom Lynch traces exogenous domination in both regions which resulted in many similar means of settlement including pastoralism homestead acts afforestation efforts and bioregional efforts at belonging Lynch pairs the two nations texts to show how an analysis at the intersection of ecocriticism and settler colonialism requires a new canon that is responsive to the social cultural and ecological difficulties created by settlement in the West and Outback Outback and Out West draws out the regional Anthropocene dimensions of settler colonialism considering such pressing environmental problems as habitat loss groundwater depletion and mass extinctions Lynch studies the implications of our settlement heritage on history art and the environment through the cross national comparison of spaces He asserts that bringing an ecocritical awareness to settler colonial theory is essential for reconciliation with dispossessed Indigenous populations as well as reparations for ecological damages as we work to decolonize engagement with and literature about these places
