Soccer Hero Pilots:

Empire of the Clouds James Hamilton-Paterson, 2010-10-07 In 1945 Britain was the world's leading designer and builder of aircraft a world class achievement that was not mere rhetoric And what aircraft they were The sleek Comet the first jet airliner The awesome delta winged Vulcan an intercontinental bomber that could be thrown about the sky like a fighter The Hawker Hunter the most beautiful fighter jet ever built and the Lightning which could zoom ten miles above the clouds in a couple of minutes and whose pilots rated flying it as better than sex How did Britain so lose the plot that today there is not a single aircraft manufacturer of any significance in the country What became of the great industry of de Havilland or Handley Page And what was it like to be alive in that marvellous post war moment when innovative new British aircraft made their debut and pilots were the rock stars of the age James Hamilton Paterson captures that season of glory in a compelling book that fuses his own memories of being a schoolboy plane spotter with a ruefully realistic history of British decline its loss of self confidence and power It is the story of great and charismatic machines and the men who flew them heroes such as Bill Waterton Neville Duke John Derry and Bill Beaumont who took inconceivable risks so that we could fly without a second thought

Killing in the Name of Identity Vamik Volkan, 2014-07-01 Why do they hate us so Vamik Volkan has the most compelling humane and universal response to the riddle of our time In this extraordinary and timely book Volkan explains better than anyone the relationship between large group identities and massive traumas and current events and ongoing conflicts around the world including those related to the horrific attacks of 9 11 In Killing in the Name of Identity Volkan has taken us further and deeper into the dark and vulnerable collective mind of ethnic religious cultural and national group conflict Through his eyes and words we find ourselves looking into and making contact with the universal elements present in humanity and in ourselves which converge in producing the conditions for great human tragedies No one understands nor writes about large group terror and violence in a more compassionate and profoundly instructive way
