Urban China in Transition John Logan, 2011-07-22 Using an innovative approach this book interprets the unprecedented transformation of contemporary China's major cities. It deals with a diversity of trends and analyzes their sources. Offers a multi-dimensional analysis of urban life in China. Highlights a diversity of trends in the areas of migration, criminal victimization, gated communities and the status of women, suburbanization and neighbourhood associations. Each chapter includes input from both an expert on urban life in China and an outside expert from the fields of sociology, geography, economics, planning, political science, history, demography, architecture or anthropology. An alternative theoretical perspective comparing the Chinese experience with other urban settings in the United States, Poland, Russia, Vietnam, East and South East Asia and South America. Worlding Cities Ananya Roy, Aihwa Ong, 2011-08-15 Worlding Cities is the first serious examination of Asian urbanism to highlight the connections between different Asian models and practices of urbanization. It includes important contributions from a respected group of scholars across a range of generations, disciplines and sites of study. Describes the new theoretical framework of worlding. Substantially expands and updates the themes of capital and culture. Includes a unique collection of authors across generations, disciplines and sites of study. Demonstrates how references to Asian power, success and hegemony make possible urban development and limit urban politics.

Eurostars and Eurocities Adrian Favell, 2011-07-20 Eurostars and Eurocities: Free Movement and Mobility in an Integrating Europe examines intra-European Union migration in the cities of Amsterdam, London and Brussels. Based on sixty in-depth interviews of free-moving European citizens and more than five years of ethnographic and documentary research, it uncovers the rarely studied human dimension of European integration. Examines the mobility, lifestyle and career opportunities created by the borderless society of the European Union as well as the barriers that still persist. Analyses the new migration trends, challenges to the welfare state and forms of urban cosmopolitanism linked to processes of European integration. Getting Into Local Power Romain Garbaye, 2008-09-15 This book presents a comparison of the patterns of ethnic minority politics in British and French city politics. A comparison of the participation of ethnic minorities in British and French cities. Includes direct comparisons of particular cities: Birmingham, Lille and Roubaix. Shows how ethnic and cultural diversity translates into political conflict in different political systems. Considers styles of political mobilisation of ethnic minorities in the context of urban political systems as well as the strategies used by party leaders and to manage ethnic diversity in political competition. Analyses how ethnic and cultural diversity in urban societies translates into conflictual
