The State of State Theory Davita Silfen Glasberg, Abbey S. Willis, Deric Shannon, 2017-12-21 In The State of State Theory State Projects Repression and Multi Sites of Power Glasberg Willis and Shannon argue that state theories should be amended to account both for theoretical developments broadly in the contemporary period as well as the multiple sites of power along which the state governs Using state projects and policies around political economy sexuality and family food welfare policy racial formation and social movements as narrative accounts in how the state operates the authors argue for a complex and intersectional approach to state theory In doing so they expand outside of the canon to engage with perspectives within critical race theory queer theory and beyond to build theoretical tools for a contemporary and critical state theory capable of providing the foundations for understanding how the state governs what is at stake in its governance and importantly how people resist and engage with state power

African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic

Much of our understanding of the world our societies and ourselves rests on theories and knowledge generated predominantly by men of certain nationalities and economic classes This male dominated and culturally specific theorizing and knowledge have generally resulted in the exclusion of women and other groups from the process of formal theorizing and knowledge building Feminism argues that the male dominated knowledge represents a skewed perception of reality and is only partial knowledge Feminism is a generalized wide ranging system of ideas about social life and human experience developed from a woman centered perspective It treats women as the central subjects in the investigative process and seeks to see the world from the distinctive vantage points of women in the social world The best way to empower women and better the situation for women is to take women s daily experiences and their informal theorizing into account and on this basis adopt feminist approaches to building theory and knowledge Philosophising Experiences and Vision of the Female Body Mind and Soul Historical Context and Contemporary Theory provides an overview and introduction to the study of feminist theory and practice in the social sciences This book provides a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development and translates feminist theory and concepts into practice The chapters investigate in a historical context mainstream and contemporary theories of feminism and gender studies This book is ideal for post graduate students of social science researchers of development management business management public governance and gender and development activists feminists and practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in feminist theory and knowledge building
