Social Behavior from Fish to Man William Etkin, Daniel G. Freedman, 1964 Social Behavior from Fish to Man William Etkin, 1967 Bibliography on the Control and Management of the Coyote and Related Canids with Selected References on Animal Physiology, Behaviour, Control Methods and Reproduction E. H. Dolnick, R. L. Medford, R. J. Schied, 1976 Human Infancy Daniel G. Freedman, 2016-07-07 Originally published in 1974 this volume is primarily devoted to what is known about human infancy from an ethological evolutionary viewpoint Included are discussions of pan specific traits presumably shared by all infants individual genetic variations on these behaviours as judged by twin studies sex differences presumably shared by infants of all ethnic groups and genetically based ethnic differences However the author favours neither biological determinism nor cultural determinism and does not consider interactionism to be a viable solution Instead a monistic position is taken stressing the inseparability of the innate and the acquired of genetics and environment and of biology and culture The heredity environment issue is tackled head on throughout the volume The interaction between the two an implied dualism is described as a statistical abstraction from measured populations while the position here is that heredity and environment are not separable in any single organism In the same vein the author argues that on logical grounds everything one does every cultural act has within it some biological component Human Paleopsychology K. Bailey, 2013-08-21 First Published in 1986 In this book the author seeks to demonstrate his believe that any credible view must grapple not only with human distinctiveness e g learning capacity language rationality and culture but the dark sides of senseless violence and social disorder as well Any such grappling with the dark side must necessarily confront our animal natures as well as our distinctly human natures Language and Man William C. McCormack, Stephen A. Wurm, 2020-05-18 No detailed description available for Language and Man Social Behavior from Fish to Man, Etc.
