Social Science on the Farm Front, 2001 In the Indian context contributed articles Social Sciences And Farming Systems Research Jeffrey R Jones, Ben J Wallace, Robert Booth, Robert E Rhoades, 2019-07-11 The publication of this book has required the cooperation of many people along the way From its very conception the project of bringing together experiences from ongoing Farming Systems Research projects has faced a problem of communication due to the dispersal of the participants Dr William Partridge and Lynne Goldstein were instrumental in the initial presentation of the symposium on Social Science participation in Farming Systems Research at the 83rd Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association Ben Wallace has done an admirable job not only as editor but as a point man throughout the process of organizing the conference and preparing the manuscript He deserves credit for expediting countless activities that could never have otherwise been accomplished because of the vagaries of international mails and telecommunications Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1929 Social Science Agricultural Agendas and Strategies Glenn Leroy Johnson, James T. Bonnen, 1991 Produced by the Social Science Agricultural and Rural Agenda Project this volume comprises papers commissioned for conferences in 1987 and 1988 the agenda and strategy statements developed at the latter conference and later papers commissioned to fill specific gaps The volume is in five parts general introduction introduction to domestic farm agribusiness and consumer work and all international agricultural development work the four driving forces for development three crosscutting concerns and administration and funding Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1916 Rethinking U.S. World Power Daniel Bessner, Michael Brenes, 2024-03-06 Since the late 1990s diplomatic historians have emphasized the importance of international and transnational processes flows and events to the history of the United States in the world Rethinking U S World Power provides an alternative to these scholarly frameworks by assembling a diverse group of historians to explore the impact of the United States and its domestic history on U S foreign relations and world affairs In so doing the collection underlines that even in a global age domestic politics and phenomena were crucial to the history of U S foreign policy and international relations more broadly Quarterly Report, Government Sponsored and Government Supported Research in the Social Sciences National Science Foundation (U.S.), 1954 The Kansas-Nebraska Cattle Feedlot Industry, 1970 Integration of Ethical and Social Aspects into Precision Livestock Farming - Achieving Real-World Impact Responsibly Oleksiy Guzhva, Janice Siegford, 2022-02-03 Proceedings of the Inaugural ISESSAH Conference Bouda Vosough Ahmadi, Jonathan Rushton, Barbara Häslér, George John Gunn, Henk Hogeveen, 2019-12-19 The Sociology of Food and Agriculture Michael Carolan, 2016-02-12 In this second edition of The Sociology of Food and Agriculture students are provided with a substantially revised and updated introductory text to this emergent field The book begins with the recent development of agriculture under capitalism and neo liberal regimes and the

Feminisms and Ruralities Barbara Pini,Berit

Brandth,Jo Little,2014-12-18 Feminist concern with difference has rarely extended to rurality even if it is now widely recognized that experiences of inequality depend on intersections of several identities in each individual life This lack of concern may reflect the urban background of the majority of feminist academics or at least their urban positionality once in the academy It may equivalently be that feminists have been influenced by stereotypes of rural women as traditional and reactionary and thus seen them as unlikely exponents of gender equality and an unfruitful focus for scholarly energies

Perhaps the problem is a broader one that is reflective of the much documented but still apparent unwillingness of many feminists to recognize and address difference in any of its manifestations Regardless even with the recent interest in intersectionality which has necessarily renewed and reenergized debates in feminism about diversity and inclusion the question of how women are differently positioned because of their non metropolitan location has remained largely overlooked

Cry from the Cotton Donald Grubbs,2000-07-01 The Southern

Tenant Farmers Union was founded in eastern Arkansas in 1934 to protest the New Deal s enrichment of Southern cotton barons at the expense of suffering sharecroppers both black and white Their courageous struggle in the face of determined and often violent resistance from their landlords is the subject of this thorough study from Donald H Grubbs which was published to critical acclaim in 1971 Cry from the Cotton was the first full scale look at the STFU and its leaders It discloses that although the union operated under noticeable socialist party sponsorship in its infancy it drew much more upon the native Southern evangelical and populist traditions much as the civil rights movement would do twenty five years later Grubbs convincingly demonstrates that while the STFU failed to gain immediate social justice for its members it resulted in the formation of the Farm Security Administration which even today continues to aid the rural poor and it played a large part in forcing the formation of the La Follette Civil Liberties Committee whose spotlight on management terrorism helped the CIO toward success The volume stands as a classic on labor issues and class struggle and still echoes with the haunting plea of the dispossessed for equity

Bygone Utopias and Farm Protest in the Rural Midwest Daniel Jaster, 2021-04-09 This book explores those who long for bygone utopias times before rapid culturally destructive social change stripped individuals of their perceived agency The case of the wave of foreclosure protests that swept through the rural American Midwest during the 1930s illustrates these themes These actions embodied a utopian understanding of agrarian society that had largely disappeared by the late 19th century hundreds to thousands of people fixed public auctions of foreclosed farms returning owners property and giving them a second chance to save their farm Comparisons to later movements including the National Farmers Organization and the protests surrounding the 1980s Farm Crisis highlight the importance of culturally catastrophic social change occurring at a breakneck pace in fomenting these types of bygone utopian actions These activists and movements should cause scholars to re think what it means to be conservative and how we view conservatism helping us better understand why we re seeing a contemporary resurgence in nationalist and reactionary movements across the globe
