Urban

Socio-Economic Segregation and Income Inequality Maarten van Ham, Tiit Tammaru, Rūta Ubarevičienė, Heleen Janssen, 2021-03-29 This open access book investigates the link between income inequality and socio economic residential segregation in 24 large urban regions in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America It offers a unique global overview of segregation trends based on case studies by local author teams The book shows important global trends in segregation and proposes a Global Segregation Thesis Rising inequalities lead to rising levels of socio economic segregation almost everywhere in the world Levels of inequality and segregation are higher in cities in lower income countries but the growth in inequality and segregation is faster in cities in high income countries This is causing convergence of segregation trends Professionalisation of the workforce is leading to changing residential patterns High income workers are moving to city centres or to attractive coastal areas and gated communities while poverty is increasingly suburbanising As a result the urban geography of inequality changes faster and is more pronounced than changes in segregation levels Rising levels of inequality and segregation pose huge challenges for the future social sustainability of cities as cities are no longer places of opportunities for all

The Global Rise of Social Cash Transfers Lutz Leisering, 2018-12-06 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948 proclaimed the equality of all human beings in dignity and rights The right to social security however has been taken more seriously only since the 2000s through calls for Social Security for All and Leaving no one behind The book investigates a major response social cash transfers to the poor The idea of simply giving money to the poor had been rejected by all major development organizations but since the early 2000s social cash transfers have mushroomed in the global South and on agendas of international organizations How come What programmes have emerged in which countries How inclusive are the programmes What models have international organizations devised Based on unique quantitative and qualitative data and on newly created concepts and indicators the book takes stock of all identifiable cash transfers in all Southern countries and of the views of all major international organizations The volume argues that cash transfers reflect broader changes new understandings of development of human rights of global risks of the social responsibility of governments and of universalism Social cash transfers have turned the poor from objects of charity into rights holders and agents of their own lives and of development A repertoire of cash transfers has evolved that has enhanced social citizenship but is limited by weak political commitments The book also contributes to a general theory of social policy in development contexts through a constructivist sociological approach that complements the dominant approaches from welfare economics and political economy and includes a theory of social assistance
