Irvin, A comparative analysis of two militant nationalist groups Why do some militant nationalists turn to electoral politics while others resist and even seek to destroy that arena Cynthia L Irvin examines two cases of electoral interventions by nationalist organizations engaged in violent political competition in Northern Ireland and in the Basque provinces of Spain Based on her findings she offers insights into the circumstances that lead such groups to abandon violence in favor of institutional political struggle Using fieldwork done in Northern Ireland and the Basque Country Irvin develops a model linking the internal dynamics of Sinn Fein and Herri Batasuna the electoral arm of the militant Basque separatists to changes in their external environments

In this unusual comparative analysis she draws on interviews with more than 100 Sinn Fein and Herri Batasuna activists and on a unique survey of 140 Herri Batasuna activists This approach moves Irvin s work beyond previous analyses which have relied on either descriptive and historical accounts or formal models of insurgent violence This detailed account has broad implications for the study of social movements and ethnic identity providing a valuable new perspective into the strategic interactions and often conflict ridden relationship between social movements and political parties ISBN 0 8166 3114 X Cloth 00 00 49 95xx ISBN 0 8166 3115 8 Paper 00 00 19 95x 304 Pages 26 Tables 5 7 8 x 9 May Social Movements Protest and Contention Series volume 9 Translation inquiries University of Minnesota Press Their Morals and Ours Leon Trotsky,2000 Second Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore, Including the Additions Made Since 1882 George Peabody Library,1897 Second Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore, Including the Additions Made Since 1882 Johns Hopkins University.
