Bandelin, 2002-12-30 No scholar denies Mikhail S Gorbachev's role in developing a new approach to Soviet socialism but most writers emphasize the radical departure from traditional Soviet ideology that perestroika seemed to represent This work presents perestroika as part of the continuum of European intellectual history It examines the sources of Gorbachev's thinking and action in 19th century thought the development of Russian Marxism through the intellectual crisis at the turn of the 20th century the pragmatic and philosophical challenges to the Marxist Leninist paradigm Stalinism and its critics and reform Communism in post World War II Eastern Europe Against this background the book argues that the decline and fall of Soviet Communism was much more deeply connected with ideological issues than most scholars have realized Bandelin presents fresh analyses of the impacts of major works and ideas such as Lenin's Materialism and Empirio Criticism the neglected Marxian concept of the Asiatic mode of production and the underlying relationship of East European reform Communism to perestroika He analyzes the major intellectual trends of perestroika in terms of these and other currents This study offers a perspective that challenges most of current scholarship on the issues it raises suggests new avenues for research and contributes to a broader overall understanding of the problems of Soviet socialism and Gorbachev's effort to solve them Heaven Is Empty Filippo Marsili, 2018-11-01 Offers a new perspective on the relationship between religion and the creation of the first Chinese empires Heaven Is Empty offers a new comparative perspective on the role of the sacred in the formation of China's early empires 221 BCE 9 CE and shows how the unification of the Central States was possible without a unitary and universalistic conception of religion The cohesive function of the ancient Mediterranean cult of the divinized ruler was crucial for the legitimization of Rome's empire across geographical and social boundaries Eventually reelaborated in Christian terms it came to embody the timelessness and universality of Western conceptions of legitimate authority while representing an analytical template for studying other ancient empires Filippo Marsili challenges such approaches in his examination of the reign of Emperor Wu of the Han 141 87 BCE Wu purposely drew from regional traditions and tried to gain the support of local communities through his patronage of local cults He was interested in rituals that envisioned the monarch as a military leader who directly controlled the land and its resources as a means for legitimizing radical administrative and economic centralization In reconstructing this imperial model Marsili interprets fragmentary official accounts in light of material evidence and noncanonical and recently excavated texts In bringing to life the courts battlefields markets shrines and pleasure quarters of early imperial China Heaven Is Empty provides a postmodern and postcolonial reassessment of religion before the arrival of Buddhism and challenges the application of Greco Roman and Abrahamic systemic identitary and exclusionary notions of the sacred to the analysis of pre Christian and non Western realities Heaven Is Empty is a tour de force It reveals Marsili s bold vision of early Chinese religion and his deft use of critical theory The book will inspire scholars of early China for generations to come
