Some of My Best Friends are Blues Ronnie Scott, Mike Hennessey, 1979      Experiencing 'Flow' in Jazz Performance Elina Hytönen-Ng, 2016-04-22 The term flow refers to experiences where the musician moves into a consciousness in which time seems to be suspended and perception of reality is blurred by unconscious forces An essential part of the jazz tradition which often serves as the foundation of the musician's identity flow is recognised within the greater jazz community as a critical factor in accomplished musicianship Flow as a concept is so deeply embedded in the scene that these experiences are not generally discussed It contributes to the musician's work motivation providing a vital level of satisfaction and accomplishment The power of the experience consciously or unconsciously has given rise to the creation of heroic images in which jazz musicians are seen as being bold yet vulnerable strong and masculine but still capable of expressing emotions In this discourse musicians are pictured as people constantly putting themselves on the line exposing themselves and their hearts to one another as well as to the audience Heroic profiles are richly constructed within the jazz scene and their incorporation into narratives of flow suggests that such images are inseparable from jazz It is thus unclear how far the musicians are simply reporting personal experience as opposed to unconsciously perpetuating a profoundly internalised mythology Drawing on eighteen interviews conducted with professional jazz musicians from around the world Elina Hytönen-Ng examines the fundamentals of the phenomenon of flow in jazz that has led to this genre's popularity Furthermore she draws on how flow experiences are viewed and constructed by jazz musicians the meanings they attach to it and the quality of music that it inspires      BluesSpeak Lincoln T Beauchamp, 2023-12-11 This incomparable anthology collects articles interviews fiction and poetry from the Original Chicago Blues Annual one of music history's most significant periodical blues publications Founded and operated from 1989 to 1995 by African American musician and entrepreneur Lincoln T Beauchamp Jr OCBA gave voice to the blues community and often frankly addressed contentious issues within the blues such as race identity prejudice wealth gender and inequity OCBA often expressed an explicitly black perspective but its contributors were a mix of black and white American and international Likewise although OCBA's roots and main focus were in Chicago Beauchamp's vision for the publication and his own activities as a blues performer and promoter embraced an international dimension reflecting a broad diversity of blues audiences and activities in locations as farflung as Iceland Poland France Italy and South Africa This volume includes key selections from OCBA's seven issues and features candid interviews with blues luminaries such as Koko Taylor Eddie Boyd Famoudou Don Moye Big Daddy Kinsey Lester Bowie Junior Wells Billy Boy Arnold Herb Kent Barry Dolins and many more Also featured are heartfelt memorials to bygone blues artists insightful observations on the state of the blues in Chicago and beyond and dozens of photographs of performers promoters and other participants in the worldwide blues scene      Some of My Best Friends are Books Judith Wynn Halsted, 2009 Recommends books for gifted readers that provide insights and coping skills for issues they may face from preschool through
