Department of Agriculture, 1928 Report of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Daughters of the American Revolution, 1929 Appalachians and Race John C. Inscoe, 2001-12-01 African Americans have had a profound impact on the economy culture and social landscape of southern Appalachia but only after a surge of study in the last two decades have their contributions been recognized by white culture Appalachians and Race brings together 18 essays on the black experience in the mountain South in the nineteenth century These essays provide a broad and diverse sampling of the best work on race relations in this region The contributors consider a variety of topics black migration into and out of the region educational and religious missions directed at African Americans the musical influences of interracial contacts the political activism of blacks during reconstruction and beyond the racial attitudes of white highlanders and much more Drawing from the particulars of southern mountain experiences this collection brings together important studies of the dynamics of race not only within the region but throughout the South and the nation over the course of the turbulent nineteenth century John and Prudence (Emrey) Lloyd, Their Descendants, and Some Allied Families Oliver Cornelius Weaver,1990 John and Prudence Lloyd emigrated from Wales and London England to Frederick County Virginia Climatological Data, Georgia United States. Environmental Data Service,1948 Old Petersburg and the Broad River Valley of Georgia E. Merton Coulter,2021-10-15 Old Petersburg and the Broad River Valley of Georgia details colonial life at Petersburg Georgia at the junction of Broad and Savannah Rivers A town that grew flourished and eventually disappeared Petersburg was once a valuable and unique outlet for river trade This volume highlights various aspects of this river town including its founding politics businesses and religious practices The Georgia Open History Library has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities Democracy demands wisdom Any views findings conclusions or recommendations expressed in this collection do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities So Obscure a Person Edna Barney,2008-04-01 So Obscure a Person is a family history and genealogy of ALEXANDER STINSON Senior of Buckingham County Virginia and his Virginia descendants His life spanned almost the entire eighteenth century of Virginia He is the progenitor of the STINSON family of Buckingham County including those who went further South after the Revolutionary War This book is the result of years of research at courthouses and libraries in Virginia and elsewhere It is extensively documented with both embedded sources and footnotes and is fully indexed There is an excursus on the HOOPER family which includes the CABELL and MAYO cousins relatives of the STINSONS Daughters of Republic of Texas - Vol I ,1995-06-15 The Republic of Texas has a vivid past its ancestors ventured west to settle an uneasy land from exploration by the Spaniards to war with the Mexican government and its declaration of independence in 1836 Read about these ancestor s stories through hundreds of biographies with photographs of most A comprehensive index provides easy reference for genealogical research Ghosts of Atlanta Rhana Gittens Wheeler,2024-09-25 The Black community of Atlanta a city once heralded as the Black Mecca of the South is currently under threat of dislocation by cultural gentrification Amid the city s urban renaissance residents face rising property values taxes and rents as well as the more insidious loss of a collective identity and belonging In Ghosts of Atlanta Cultural Gentrification of the Black Mecca author Rhana Gittens Wheeler examines the fading echoes of African American memory and historical narratives in Atlanta As encroaching investors and business owners enter historically Black areas many have sought to rebrand entire neighborhoods making those spaces more palatable to would be gentrifiers and less recognizable to former residents Exploring material sites of meaning including monuments museums art exhibitions and more Gittens Wheeler unearths tensions between the city's proud legacy as a hub of political and economic equality for Black Americans and the unsettling reality of cultural displacement Gittens Wheeler interrogates and critiques recent developments in the city including the Atlanta BeltLine craft breweries and attractions that romanticize the civil rights movement Drawing inspiration from literary giants like Ralph Ellison and Toni Morrison as well as contemporary voices like 2 Chainz and T I Gittens Wheeler weaves together elements of rhetorical criticism archival studies and interviews to confront pressing questions What happens when symbols of cultural memory and identity are uprooted How do residents grapple with the erasure of their narratives forced to feel unwelcome in their own neighborhoods In addressing these questions Gittens Wheeler uncovers the complex dynamics of shared spaces exposing both the pain of displacement and the possibility of redemption A reverberating call to action Ghosts of Atlanta Cultural Gentrification of the Black Mecca demonstrates that Black stories inscribed in space are necessary for bringing a moral reckoning to the heart of America's national identity

We the People Forrest McDonald, 2017-09-29 Charles A Beard's An Economic Interpretation of the United States Constitution was a work of such powerful persuasiveness as to alter the course of American historiography No historian who followed in studying the making of the Constitution was entirely free from Beard's radical interpretation of the document as serving the economic interests of the Framers as members of the propertied class Forrest McDonald's We the People was the first major challenge to Beard's thesis This superbly researched and documented volume restored the Constitution as the work of principled and prudential men It did much to invalidate the crude economic determinism that had become endemic in the writing of American history We the People fills in the details that Beard had overlooked in his fragmentary book MacDonald's work is based on an exhaustive comparative examination of the economic biographies of the 55 members of the Constitutional Convention and the 1,750 members of the state ratifying conventions His conclusion is that on the basis of evidence Beard's economic interpretation does not hold McDonald demonstrates conclusively that the interplay of conditioning or determining factors at work in the making of the Constitution was extremely complex and cannot be rendered intelligible in terms of any single system of interpretation McDonald's classic work while never denying economic motivation as a factor also demonstrates how the rich cultural and political mosaic of the colonies was an independent and dominant factor in the decision making that led to the first new nation In its pluralistic approach to economic factors and analytic richness We the People is both a major work of American history and a significant document in the history of ideas It continues to be an essential volume for historians political scientists economists and American studies specialists
