How to Love Someone Else's Child Vicksay Baby Moten-Richardson, 2021-03-11 All I ever wanted was to be a mother At the age of four when someone would ask me what I wanted to be I would say I want God to delay his coming so that I can live to be twenty five years old get married and have children But on that dreadful day in January of 1994 my doctor told me that my chances of becoming a mother were very slim due to several female problems I hung my head in my chest and cried There will always be a hole in my heart and questions in my mind about what my child would have looked like Would he or she be like me talk like me or even stand like me God s will in my life is more important than mine and since then I have learned to trust him with all my heart Along the way I have been blessed to be called mom by some very extraordinary children Along the way I have been blessed to be called mom by some very loving and generous children Along the way I have been blessed to adopt two extremely special children Along the way I have been blessed by these children more than words can express But most of all I have been blessed to have LOVED SOMEONE ELSE S CHILD Somebody Else's

Someone Else's Child Nancy Woodruff,2000-07-05 From debut novelist Nancy Woodruff comes this chilling and beautifully wrought story of forgiveness renewal and the ever elusive second chance When fifteen year old Matt and his family move from Oregon to an affluent Connecticut suburb the fact that he is home schooled brands him as more than an outsider he is a town oddity Just when he seems to have made inroads into the closed social circuit just when he is embraced by a trio of teenage girls and feels his life might be changing for the better he is responsible for a devastating car crash that leaves two of the girls dead Tara isn't in the car with her best friends Instead she's by her mother Jennie's bedside as she gives birth to a baby girl While Jennie and her husband Chris mourn Tara's friends and try to make sense of their eldest daughter's loss and their own new baby a pervasive sense of blame begins to rain down on Matt Jennie knows the community's reaction will surely ruin Matt's life But when she reaches out to him hiring him to work for her high school reunion company for the summer Jennie suddenly finds herself vilified as well In the face of community and family derision both imagined and real physical and emotional Jennie and Matt soon find themselves in solidarity As their attachment grows Jennie realizes that she is bound to Matt by more than just compassion that the broken child she sought to save is somehow reviving her Someone Else's Child is a deeply moving story of guilt and forgiveness despair and hope and the intricacies of love and responsibility In rich and unforgettable prose Nancy Woodruff masterfully explores the fraying loyalties that can turn our world upside down in the face of tragedy

The Hole in Our Gospel World Vision 75th Anniversary Richard Stearns,2025-02-04 Richard Stearns shows that the Bible boldly speaks that there is no whole gospel without compassion and justice shown to the poor With more than 260 000 copies sold The Hole in Our Gospel continues to impact readers worldwide and this new edition includes updated statistics photos and a foreword from the current World Vision president Is our faith only about going to church studying the Bible and avoiding the most serious sins Or does God expect more Have we embraced the whole gospel or a gospel with a hole in it More than twenty years ago Rich Stearns came face to face with that question as he sat in a mud hut in Rakai Uganda listening to the heartbreaking story of an orphaned child Stearns's journey took much more than a long flight to Africa. It took answering God's call on his life, a call that tore him out of his corner office at one of America's most prestigious corporations to walk with the poorest of the poor in our world. Stearns's compelling story demonstrates that the whole gospel was always meant to be a world-changing social revolution, a revolution that begins with each one of us. With more than 260,000 copies sold, this revised and updated edition will be part of World Vision's 75th anniversary.

Minor Mlabri Jørgen Rischel, 1995. The language described in this monograph is spoken by a small hilltribe in Northern Indochina. Its existence has attracted considerable attention because of the legendary and intriguing primitiveness of the Mlabri or Spirits of the Yellow Leaves as they are traditionally called, but reliable information about the cultural heritage and particularly the language is sparse. This is true in particular of an ethnic subgroup whose culture and language are now close to extinction; the group is referred to as the Minor Mlabri. This monograph is based on field notes from 1988 and later years in which the author visited the Minor Mlabri. The Mlabri are traditionally hunter-gatherers and seem to have been so for a long time. Until recently this was more or less the lifestyle of the small group under study here. They now associate with Hmongs in remote villages because they were for several years trapped in the war zone between Laos and Thailand and the few survivors of the Minor Mlabri had to settle down in safer environments. Deforestation has made it increasingly difficult for them to live their traditional life in the area where they belong. Up to now the Mlabri language in all its varieties has been unknown.

Leading law professors weigh in on key issues in race and the law collected in honor of one of the originators of critical race theory, Derrick Bell. When Derrick Bell, one of the originators of critical race theory, turned sixty-five, his wife set up a lecture series of the leading critical race theorists, many of them Bell's former students. Now these lectures, given over the course of twenty-five years, are collected for the first time in Carving Out a Humanity, a volume that Library Journal calls potent and Kirkus Reviews in a starred review says powerfully acknowledges the persistence of structural racism. To what extent does equal protection protect? asks Ian Haney Lopez in a penetrating analysis of the gaps that remain in our civil rights legal codes. Sherrilyn Ifill, president and director counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, describes the hypersegregation of our cities and the limits of the law's ability to change deep-seated attitudes about race. Patricia J. Williams explores the legacy of slavery in the law's current constructions of sanity. Anita Allen discusses competing privacy and accountability interests in the lives of African American celebrities. Chuck Lawrence interrogates the judicial backlash against affirmative action. And Michelle Alexander describes what caused her to break ranks with the civil rights community and take up the cause of those our legal system has labeled unworthy. Carving Out a Humanity gathers some of our country's brightest progressive legal stars in a volume that illuminates facets of the law that have continued to perpetuate racial inequality and to confound our nation at the start of a new millennium. According to Library Journal, scholars and lay readers alike will be enlightened and spurred to brehtaking journey to rediscover the critical mission of Christ in our world today and the richness of God's calling on our lives. The Hole in Our Gospel is a compelling true story of a corporate CEO who set aside worldly success for something far more significant and discovered the full power of the gospel of Jesus Christ to change his own life. He uses his journey to demonstrate how the gospel the whole gospel was always meant to be a world-changing social revolution, a revolution that begins with us. This special edition of The Hole in Our Gospel includes a new epilogue from author Richard Stearns, a church resource guide, color charts and graphs on the needs of the world, and a concordance on poverty and justice. Unfinished might just challenge everything you thought you understood about your Christian faith, says Bill Hybels, senior pastor of the Willow Creek Community Church. If every Christian read this book and took it seriously, the world would never be the same again. Just before he left, Jesus sent his followers into the world with a revolutionary mission to change the world by proclaiming God's truth and demonstrating his incredible love. But the single task he gave us to accomplish remains unfinished. Just when I dare think my work is done, Rich reminds me that we are just getting started, says Max Lucado, pastor and best-selling author. Why are we here? What is our purpose and where do we fit in the bigger story that God is writing? How should our faith affect our careers, our money, our families, and our lives? And why does it matter? We will find our deepest purpose only when we discover the unique role God created for us to play in his unfolding story.      Responses to Human Trafficking ,
