Bird on an Ethics Wire Margaret Somerville, 2015-11-01 Our physical ecosystem is not indestructible and we have obligations to hold it in trust for future generations The same is true of our metaphysical ecosystem the values principles attitudes beliefs and shared stories on which we have founded our society In Bird on an Ethics Wire Margaret Somerville explores the values needed to maintain a world that reasonable people would want to live in and pass on to their descendants Somerville addresses the conflicts between people who espouse progressive values and those who uphold traditional ones by casting her attention on the debates surrounding birth abortion and reproductive technologies and death euthanasia and shows how words are often used as weapons She proposes that we should seek to experience amazement wonder and awe to enrich our lives and help us to find meaning Such experiences Somerville believes can change how we see the world and live our lives and affect the decisions we make especially regarding values and ethics They can help us to cope with physical or existential suffering and ultimately put us in touch with the sacred in either its secular or religious form which protects what we must not destroy Experiencing amazement wonder and awe Somerville concludes can also generate hope without which our spirit dies Both individuals and societies need hope a sense of connection to the future if the world is to make the best decisions about values in the battles that constitute the current culture wars

Bioethics of Nonexistence Leonard Tuma Chuwa, 2020-08-03 The greatest violence and violation of human life is legalization of its disposability and annihilation based on its condition Such killing whether of self or another depicts absolute contradiction and betrayal of the very hypothesis of humanity It manifests absolute failure to provide due care and that is inhuman Human life is who we are It is the basis of any argument for human rights There cannot be a right to terminate the existence of the rights bearer Such a right contradicts the possibility of its own existence There cannot be dignity in terminating the one in whom dignity resides There can only be indignity in killing a person The paradox of legalization of euthanasia and assisted suicide represents humanity turned on itself It is endorsement of existential nihilism and objectification of human life It is the beginning of the end of humanhood This book is a critical ethical exploration of mind sets around euthanasia and assisted suicide to provide clarity sobriety and objectivity The book is really about ontology of human life Dr Leonard Tumaini Chuwa is a Catholic priest and scholar working for Ascension as director of spiritual care for the state of Florida Dr Chuwa is certified by the National Association of Catholic Chaplains NACC Chuwa has bachelor of arts degrees in philosophy and theology master of arts degree in theology and religious studies from John Carroll Jesuit University in Cleveland Ohio and a doctor of philosophy degree in bioethics and health care ethics from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Chuwa is a distinguished public speaker on different bioethical issues His first book titled African Indigenous Ethics in Global Bioethics Interpretation of Ubuntu was published by Springer Academic Publishing as the first book in a new global bioethics series Father Chuwa also authored Bioethical False Truths Egotistic and Relativistic Autonomy vs Christian and Ubuntu Relational Autonomy
