Lohmann,1914 The destruction of the tropical forests continues rapidly We all know that this has global ecological and economic consequences The problem is of such magnitude that it can only be compared to warfare The destruction of tropical forests is both detrimental to the global ecology as well as posing a serious threat to the people living in these areas Furthermore the overutilization of such a valuable resource poses a serious threat to the next generations Besides the problem generated for the people in these regions and for the earth in general there is a moral obligation to preserve the vast biological diversity in the tropical forests We have a commitment to all species on earth as well as man and therefore need to preserve as many as possible if not all This book discusses the problem from different angles from forestry ecology and nature conservation The two main problem areas are first the wise utilization of that portion of the forest which will be used especially the introduction of planned forestry in such areas and second the development of a good plan for nature conservation in the tropics Piropos Y Dulces Frases de Amor ,2002 Written in Exile Ignacio Lopez-Calvo,2019-07-16 On September 11 1973 Chile's General Pinochet led a quick and brutal military coup ousting the Allende government Ignacio Lopez Calvo argues that the rise of the Pinochet dictatorship and the subsequent imprisonment of any Allende sympathizers shaped Chilean narrative into two structural forms liberationist narrative cathartic journalistic testimonies that provide models for revolutionary behavior against authoritarianism and demystifying narrative which uses the events of 1973 as well as the colonial aspirations of European countries as a Paradise Lost backdrop in which the characters of this type of fiction are able to create their non political
