Women and National Trauma in Late Imperial Chinese Literature Wai-yee Li, 2020-10-26 The Ming Qing dynastic transition in seventeenth century China was an epochal event that reverberated in Qing writings and beyond political disorder was bound up with vibrant literary and cultural production Women and National Trauma in Late Imperial Chinese Literature focuses on the discursive and imaginative space commanded by women Encompassing writings by women and by men writing in a feminine voice or assuming a female identity as well as writings that turn women into a signifier through which authors convey their lamentation nostalgia or moral questions for the fallen Ming the book delves into the mentality of those who remembered or reflected on the dynastic transition as well as those who reinvented its significance in later periods It shows how history and literature intersect how conceptions of gender mediate the experience and expression of political disorder Why and how are variations on themes related to gender boundaries female virtues vices agency and ethical dilemmas used to allegorize national destiny In pursuing answers to these questions Wai yee Li explores how this multivalent presence of women in different genres provides a window into the emotional and psychological turmoil of the Ming Qing transition and of subsequent moments of national trauma 2016 Joseph Levenson Book Prize Pre 1900 Category China and Inner Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies

Shapeshifters in Medieval North Atlantic Literature Santiago Francisco Barreiro, Luciana Mabel Cordo Russo, 2025-10-01 Representations of shapeshifters are prominent in medieval culture and they are particularly abundant in the vernacular literatures of the societies around the North Sea Some of the figures in these stories remain well known in later folklore and often even in modern media such as werewolves dragons berserker and bird maidens Incorporating studies about Old English Norse Latin Irish and Welsh literature this collection of essays marks an important new contribution to the study of medieval shapeshifters Each essay highlights how shapeshifting cannot be studied in isolation but intersects with many other topics such as the supernatural monstrosity animality gender and identity Contributors to Shapeshifters in Medieval North Atlantic Literature come from different intellectual traditions embracing a multidisciplinary approach combining influences from literary criticism history philology and anthropology
