Song For A New Generation:

Song and System Harvey Rachlin, 2020-02-27 From the first Tin Pan Alley tunes to today's million view streaming hits pop songs have been supported and influenced by an increasingly complex industry that feeds audience demand for its ever evolving supply of hits Harvey Rachlin investigates how music entered American homes and established a cultural institution that would expand throughout the decades to become a multibillion dollar industry weaving a history of the evolution of pop music in tandem with the music business Exploding in the 1950s and 60s with pop stars like Elvis and the Beatles the music industry used new technologies like television to promote live shows and record releases More recently the development of online streaming services has forced the music industry to cultivate new promotion distribution copyright and profit strategies Pop music and its business have defined our shared cultural history Song and System The Making of American Pop Music not only charts the music that we all know and love but also reveals our active participation in its development throughout generations

Inside the Soul of a New Generation Tim Celek, Dieter Zander, Patrick Kampert, 1996 Generation X Busters The Lost Generation The Fatherless Generation These are the catchphrases used to describe that elusive and mysterious generation of 46 million Americans born between 1965 and 1980 More than that these are our children our neighbors our friends and fellow employees Tim Celek and Dieter Zander have learned through years of experience that to win this generation of young people you have to fight harder for credibility and you have to love harder to overcome their pasts But they have also found that reaching them is well worth the effort Inside the Soul of a New Generation offers a fascinating inside look at the unique forces that shape this misunderstood generation and shows how pastors parents and Baby Boomers of every stripe can minister to their spiritual needs From practical ways to reach out to Busters and build powerful Buster friendly churches to creating a vital community and empowering Busters for leadership Celek and Zander show that this generation is not only reachable but has the potential to effect positive changes both in the church and in the world

Johnny Mercer Glenn T. Eskew, 2013-11-15 John Herndon Johnny Mercer 1909-76 remained in the forefront of American popular music from the 1930s through the 1960s writing over a thousand songs collaborating with all the great popular composers and jazz musicians of his day working in Hollywood and on Broadway and as cofounder of Capitol Records helping to promote the careers of Nat King Cole Margaret Whiting Peggy Lee and many other singers Mercer's songs sung by Bing Crosby Billie Holiday Judy Garland Frank Sinatra Ella Fitzgerald Tony Bennett Lena Horne and scores of other performers are canonical parts of the great American songbook Four of his songs received Academy Awards Moon River Days of Wine and Roses On the Atchison Topeka and the Santa Fe and In the Cool Cool Cool of the Evening Mercer standards such as Hooray for Hollywood and You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby remain in the popular imagination Exhaustively researched Glenn T. Eskew's biography improves upon earlier popular treatments of the Savannah Georgia born songwriter to produce a sophisticated insightful evenhanded examination of one of America's most popular and successful chart toppers

Johnny Mercer Southern Songwriter for the World provides a compelling chronological narrative that places Mercer within a larger framework of diaspora entertainers who spread a southern multiracial culture across the nation and around the world Eskew contends that Mercer and much of his music remained rooted in his native South being deeply influenced by the folk music of coastal Georgia and the blues and jazz recordings made by black and white musicians At Capitol Records Mercer helped redirect American popular music by commodifying these formerly distinctive regional sounds into popular music When rock n roll diminished opportunities at home Mercer looked abroad collaborating with international composers to create transnational songs At heart Eskew says Mercer was a jazz musician rather than a Tin Pan Alley lyricist and the interpenetration of jazz and popular song that he created expressed elements of his southern heritage that made his work distinctive and consistently kept his music before an approving audience
