Change in Coastal Sri Lanka R.L. Stirrat, 2025-11-01 Focused on social change in a coastal village in Sri Lanka this book emphasizes processes over structures based on the fundamental premise that society is defined by change rather than stasis. In the village change emerged as a response to broader economic and political forces yet the people were far from passive victims of these external influences. Instead they actively engaged with shifting circumstances seizing new opportunities as they arose. Change was generally perceived in a positive light reflecting the community's resilience and adaptability.

Buddhist Nuns in Taiwan and Sri Lanka Wei-Yi Cheng, 2007-01-24 Taking a comparative approach this fieldwork based study explores the lives and thoughts of Buddhist nuns in present day Taiwan and Sri Lanka. The author examines the postcolonial background and its influence on the modern situation as well as surveying the main historical economic and social factors which influence the position of nuns in society. Based on original research including interviews with nuns in both countries the book examines their perspectives on controversial issues and in particular those concerning the status of women in Buddhism. Concerns discussed include allegedly misogynist teachings relating to women's inferior karma that they cannot become Buddhas and that nuns have to follow additional rules that monks do not. Bridging the gap between feminist theory and the reality of women in religion the book makes a distinct contribution to the study of women in Buddhism by focusing on nuns from both of the main wings of Buddhism Theravada and Mahayana as well as furthering feminist studies of Buddhism and religion in general.
