Story Of Omayya:

The Story of Omayya Nancy Huston, 1987 An account of the psychological trauma experienced by a young woman who has been raped The Mirror George Aidoo, 1979-04-20 Transmissions Isabelle Frances McNeill, Bradley Stephens, 2007 As a concept transmission is crucial to our understanding of how ideas circulate within and across cultures It opens up a series of questions that link to key debates concerning the exchange of knowledge Bringing together research from a broad range of areas in French studies this volume investigates the workings of transmission in relation to canonical and contemporary figures alike including Proust Barthes Derrida Jean Luc Godard and Claire Denis The essays collected here offer a lively response to the themes of transmission considering literature and philosophy from the medieval period onwards as well as modern cinema and critical theory The first section traces concepts of malign transmission that have informed medieval early modern and finally contemporary representations of contagion The second section addresses the impact of trauma along with its imperative to testify to or transmit painful experiences such as rape and the Holocaust The final section considers transmission in terms of a signal that carries a message as well as the media that transport or encode that signal

Black Dance Nancy Huston, 2014-09-09 A dying screenwriter conjures a fascinating past in a novel as musical as a Bach prelude from the Prix Femina winning author of Fault Lines Elle France Renowned screenwriter Milo Noirlac is dying As he lies in his hospital bed voices from his past and present come to him each taking on the rhythm of his favorite Brazilian fight dance the capoeira Seated next to him is Milo's director co writer and lover Paul Schwartz who coaxes Milo through the complex tale that will be their final masterpiece his life story From the abuse Milo suffered as a foster child to the loss of his beloved grandfather's priceless library his imagination brings to life several generations of ancestors voices in French and English German and Dutch Cree and Gaelic There's his Irish grandfather a would be poet classmate of Jimmy Joyce and agitator against British occupation Awinita Milo's biological mother an Indian teen prostitute Eugénio a Brazilian street child whom Milo finds and fosters As each voice cascades through Milo's memory a fragment of history both personal and global falls into place Humour in Self-Translation Margherita Dore, 2022-10-15 This book explores an important aspect of human existence humor in self translation a virtually unexplored area of research in Humour Studies and Translation Studies Of the select group of international scholars contributing to this volume some examine literary texts from different perspectives sociological philosophical or post colonial while others explore texts in more extraneous fields such as standup comedy or language learning This book sheds light on how humour in self translation induces thoughts on social issues challenges stereotypes contributes to recast individuals in novel forms of identity and facilitates reflections on our own sense of humour This accessible and engaging volume is of interest to advanced students of Humour Studies and Translation Studies
