Story Of Ribbleshead Viaduct:

The Story of Ribbleshead Viaduct William Reginald Mitchell, Peter Fox, 1990 High Arches W. R. Mitchell, The Empathy Gap William Collins, 2021

From the ebook Preface This book majors on the presentation of empirical evidence in the form of data The most digestible form for communicating such material is through the use of Tables and Figures generally graphs Consequently the book has a great many Tables and Figures and the latter are often in colour Viewing on a device capable of rendering colours is therefore recommended although monochrome will be adequate in most cases The Empathy Gap proposes the thesis that men and boys are extensively disadvantaged across many areas of life including in education healthcare genital integrity criminal justice domestic abuse working hours taxation pensions paternity homelessness suicide sexual offences and access to their own children after parental separation The claim is justified in the book by empirical evidence mostly but not exclusively from the UK involving nearly 1 000 references 179 Figures and 49 Tables To most people of both sexes this will appear to be a perverse perspective as disadvantage has become the province of women girls and minorities not males Yet the empirical case supporting the disadvantages suffered by men and boys is undeniable to the objective mind But if this is so why is the popular perception that males are privileged whereas disadvantage is the province of the opposite sex Why do the male disadvantages go largely unremarked by both sexes if they are so pervasive Presenting the case for widespread and substantial male disadvantage is also a challenge to the usual hegemonic paradigm of feminist theory These issues are addressed within The Empathy Gap by presenting an entirely different orientation on the social psychology of relations between the sexes Out goes the idea of an oppressive patriarchy Instead a man's participation in the human pair bond is seen to be altruistic a phenomenon arising originally from evolution and enacted in the individual via the emotional psyche This is the origin of an asymmetry in the perception of the sexes which normalises the preferencing of females and therefore inevitably disadvantages males as a corollary The successful evolved strategy involves male utility and relative male disposability the latter being facilitated by a muted empathy for males by both sexes the empathy gap Rather than working to overcome this male disposability as a true egalitarian movement would have done feminism has fed upon it and amplified it The feminist project relies upon the true state of affairs remaining unacknowledged and the empathy gap is instrumental in its own invisibility In respect of this theory the author makes no claim for originality The ideas presented have been circulating within the sub culture for decades However the focus of the book is to show how these ideas are manifest in practice The Story of British Railways Barrington Tatford, 1946 The Settle-Carlisle Railway Paul Salveson, 2019-09-23

The line from Settle to Carlisle is one of the world's great rail journeys It carves its way through the magnificent landscape of the Yorkshire Dales where it becomes the highest main line in England descending to Cumbria's lush green Eden Valley with its view of the Pennines and Lakeland fells But the story of the line is even more enthralling From its earliest history the line fostered controversy it probably should never have been built arising only from a political dispute between two of the largest and most powerful railway companies in the 1860s Its construction through some of the most wild and inhospitable terrain in England was a herculean task Tragic accidents affected those who built worked and travelled the line After surviving the Breeching cuts of the 1960s the line faced almost certain closure in the 1980s only to be saved by an expected last minute reprieve This book describes the history behind the inception and creation of the line the challenges of constructing the 72 mile railway and its seventeen viaducts and fourteen tunnels threat of closure in the mid 1980s and the campaign to save it and finally the line today and its future Christmas Fireside Stories Margaret Dickinson, Annie Murray, Diane Allen, Rita Bradshaw, Mary Wood, Pam Weaver, 2014-11-06 Christmas Fireside Stories is a delightful festive collection of short stories that includes delicious Christmas recipes recommended by the authors as well as extracts from your favourite saga novels Christmas at Briar Farm by Diane Allen Christmas preparations are in full swing at Briar farm as the Bainbridge family get ready for a traditional 1960s Christmas with all the trimmings Kate s Miracle by Rita Bradshaw It s Christmas 1919 and things are looking bleak for Kate and her two small children in the north of England That is until Kate discovers the strength of friendship and community at Christmas time The Gift by Margaret Dickinson Christmas Eve 1914 A moment of hope unites soldiers on both sides of the firing line as the spirit of Christmas crosses even the divides of war and an act of generosity changes one man s life forever Christmas at Thalstead Halt by Annie Murray At Thalstead Halt the station master has the unexpected task of sheltering snow bound passengers in the run up to Christmas 1886 And the eclectic mix of travellers bring more than one surprise with them You ll Never Know Just How Much I Love You by Pam Weaver Christmas 1943 The post office at Goring on Sea is surrounded by a heavy blanket of winter snow but nothing can stop the last post or the power of true love at Christmas time A Wounded Christmas by Mary Wood Can friendship humour and a Boxing Day party help to ease the sorrows of 1942 A heart warming story featuring characters from the saga novel Proud of You Thunder in the Mountains William Reginald Mitchell, 2009-07 Halton Height Nick B. Hall, 2011 A Dales Companion and Other Stories Norman Harrison, The Railway Magazine , 2006 Road to Ribbleshead John R. Burns, 2017-06 Road to Ribbleshead is a dramatic tragic and sometimes violent story of those men and their families who struggled to build the Ribbleshead viaduct and Blea Moor tunnel as part of the last great railway built in Britain Road to Ribbleshead shows the courage and determination of the men who had to work in the most difficult conditions and the women and children who shared their lives Except for the viaduct and tunnel nothing remains to show they ever existed This book seeks to resurrect their memory and the difficult circumstances in which they struggled to survive Youth Hostel Story Oliver Coburn, 1950 Yorkshire's Three Peaks Mike Appleton, 2014-04-15 Take a journey around this picturesque area and discover the real stories from inside the Dales Yarn Spinner 2: More Stories K. L. Lamarsh, 2011-12-12 Yarn Spinner 2 More Stories The title says it all More tales from the pen of K L LaMarsh including the third installment of Touched The collection also includes a story written before Touched A Story of Love and Revenge from

Beyond the Grave With Love from Gerard xxx tells the story of a very special boy and his family Gerard and his twin sister Kate have a unique relationship a relationship that Kate doesn't really appreciate until it is too late The book concludes with a few real life situation tales written to put a smile on your face But beware the very last tale in the book revisits the darker side Enjoy

The Oxford Companion to British Railway History from 1603 to the 1990s Jack Simmons, Gordon Biddle, 1997 This is the first encyclopedia to chart the progress of Britain's railway development It begins with primitive 17th century wagonways fully considers the eras of horse steam diesel and electric traction and then charts the change from private to public ownership Finally it describes in detail the privatizations of the late 1990s Over six hundred entries by eighty eight expert contributors provide a comprehensive and unique reference to all aspects of railways

Rethinking Secular Time in Victorian England Stefan Fisher-Høyrem, 2022-08-29 This open access book draws on conceptual resources ranging from medieval scholasticism to postmodern theory to propose a new understanding of secular time and its mediation in nineteenth century technological networks Untethering the concept of secularity from questions of religion and belief it offers an innovative rethinking of the history of secularisation that will appeal to students scholars and everyone interested in secularity Victorian culture the history of technology and the temporalities of modernity

Railway George Revill, 2013-06-01 In the nineteenth century railways were viewed as a symbol of progress and confidence in technological modernity In the twenty first century the frustrations of gridlocked traffic record high gas prices and the looming fears of climate change have transformed the railway system once again into a symbol of hope that provides the possibility of an environmentally sustainable future In Railway George Revill examines the technology and politics of railway history as well as related themes such as mobility identity design marketing and sustainability In both practical and symbolic senses the cultural meanings of railways continue to play a role in how people organize and respond to modern environments social problems and technologies Revill draws from art literature music and film to illustrate how the railway carries meaning for all of us creating connections and separations detachment and involvement from the routine commuter to the enthusiast As Revill shows railways inform our everyday language from fast track to side track to going off the rails and continue to fascinate us today In this wide ranging and well illustrated look at railways across the globe Revill ultimately reveals how central they are to our understanding of modern everyday life

Dreaming In Yellow Harry Harrison, 2022-03-23 Emerging from Nottingham in the summer of 1989 the DiY Collective were one of the first house sound systems in the UK Merging the anarchic lineage of the free festival scene the cultural and political anger of bands like Crass with the new irresistible electronic pulse of acid house they bridged the idealistic void left by the moral implosion of the commercial rave scene Written by Harry Harrison one of DiY's founding members this book traces their origins back to early formative experiences describing in detail the seminal clubs parties festivals and records that forged the collective Dreaming in Yellow is an attempt to distil the story of DiY's tumultuous existence and the remarkably eclectic outrageous and occasionally deranged story of them doing it themselves
