

What's Your Discipleship Story?

Remember that a disciple is one who loves and follows Jesus. And, discipleship is learning to love like Jesus by giving away what we've received. Think about who first introduced you to Jesus or who invested in you along the way. Consider what you have received and what you've been able to give away. Or, reflect on how you have taken steps toward growth in the lifelong pursuit of following Jesus.

Sharing our stories of God at work in our lives can serve a reminder of His faithfulness to us and an inspiration to others. We may follow up to hear more of your story or even share it, with your permission, as an encouragement to our church family.
