Storytime Sourcebook A Compendium Of Ideas And Resources For Storytellers:

The Storytime Sourcebook Carolyn N. Cullum,1990 Offers suggestions and ideas for telling stories to children in libraries and also suggests sources for stories A Life in Storytelling Binnie Tate Wilkin,2014-03-25 A Life in Storytelling contains the reflections and lessons from one of the most noted storytellers of our times Fifty years of storytelling has provided Binnie Tate Wilkin with the experiences and insights to form the basis of a text for the storyteller both for the professional librarian teacher or parent wanting to provide children with substance through story The sections of the book are designed to provide background material for the art and craft of storytelling the methods and uses of storytelling sources and examples of stories and a broad selection of over 100 stories briefly annotated Included are sections that explain how to derive or adapt stories from current events history or imaginative writings and a detailed treatment in the use of dance in storytelling a technique that if not invented by Wilkin has become a trademark of her approach The treatment is always informal and personal and is interleaved with anecdotes drawn from the author s more than 50 years of storytelling The Whole Story Handbook Carol L. Birch,2000 Birch storyteller children s librarian and teacher tackles the slippery topic of the difference between reciting a memorized story and telling it directly and engagingly to listeners The storyteller must know far more about the story than he or she tells In addition to her own infectious prose Birch provides a series of guided imagery exercises that walk the reader through the nuts and bolts of learning imagining a story from the inside out in order to be fully present in its telling Books in Motion Julie Dietzel-Glair,2013-04-09 Librarians and educators can shake up storytimes help children stay healthy and encourage a lifelong love of reading with Dietzel Glair s easy to use resource Demonstrating exactly how to use children s books to engage preschool age children through movement it s loaded with storytimes that will have children standing up tall balancing as they pretend to walk across a bridge or even flying around the room like an airplane Presenting hundreds of ideas this all in one book is divided into six sections Art spotlights titles that are natural hooks for art or craft activities alongside ideas on how to create art just like the character in the story while an appendix includes art patterns that can be used as coloring sheets Games includes searching games follow the leader games and guessing games to enhance the books in this section Movement features books that kids can jump stomp clap chomp waddle parade wiggle and stretch with Music chooses books perfect for activities like shaking a maraca singing dancing between the pages and creating new sound effects Playacting lets kids pretend along with the characters in these books whether it s washing their face swimming with fish or hunting a lion Props encourages storytime leaders to bring out their puppets flannelboard pieces and scarves these books have enough props for everyone in the program to have a part Each chapter includes as much instruction as possible for a wide range of motions Pick and choose the amount of movement that is right for your storytime crowd or do it all A Box Full of Tales Kathy MacMillan,2008-04-14 In Maryland s Carroll County story boxes have made this impossible dream come true for twenty years Now MacMillan writer storyteller and former children's librarian outlines the proven story box system for sharing an array of successful programs Story boxes offer a simple method for capturing ideas talent creativity and resources available in your library Including step by step instructions from concept through implementation and supplemented by programming tips A Box Full of Tales also offers detailed plans for fifty great story boxes including suggested books fingerplays songs props crafts and sign language From ah choo to antlers from monkey business to zoo escapes A Box Full of Tales is an easy way to offer winning stress free library programs for children without the headaches and the hassles You can make the impossible happen when you share resources with story boxes BOOK JACKET Outstanding Library Service to Children Rosanne Cerny,Penny Markey,Amanda

Williams,2006-07-17 This book is a companion to Competencies for librarians serving children in public libraries 1999 Introd Len Cabral's Storytelling Book Len Cabral,Mia Manduca,1997 Discusses the art of storytelling provides a guide to engaging an audience and includes examples of stories and how to tell them Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries

Donna L. Gilton,2012-03-15 Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries demonstrates that public librarians can promote learning by combining the elements of Information Literacy Instruction ILI with traditional practices of public libraries This approach contributes to the information enfranchisement of patrons and enhances the fulfillment of the traditional goals and purposes of libraries Donna L Gilton provides background on ILI and current developments in public library instruction and also examines educational theories and practices derived from the fields of behaviorism cognitive psychology constructivism and educational humanism Additional chapters delve into practices developed to deal with diverse groups and translate the theories and practices that have been outlined into a well coordinated plan The final chapters survey the role of libraries as cultural institutions This book introduces the field of ILI to public librarians in the context of their own traditions and shows the unique ways that ILI can be implemented in public library settings It encourages librarians to rethink practices to incorporate the principles of ILI and will enable public librarians to extend and enrich their instruction on information use Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries is a valuable resource for librarians educators and leaders of public organizations
