The Power of Stars Bryan E. Penprase, 2010-10-17 What are some of the connections that bind us to the stars How have these connections been established And how have people all around the world and throughout time reacted to the night sky the sun and moon in their poetry mythology rituals and temples This book explores the influence of the sky on both ancient and modern civilization by providing a clear overview of the many ways in which humans have used the stars as an ordering principle in their cultures and which today still inspire us intellectually emotionally and spiritually The book explores constellation lore from around the world celestial alignments of monuments and temples both from ancient and modern civilizations and the role the sky has played in the cultures of the Greek Egyptian Babylonian Native American Chinese Mayan Aztec and Inca Models of the universe from each of these cultures are described clearly and each culture's explanation of the stars planets and other celestial objects are described The roots of astronomy and astrology are presented with original imagery and reproductions of ancient manuscripts that portray the structure of the physical universe as conceived by a diverse array of human cultures over the centuries Our own scientific Big Bang cosmology and the origin of stars and elements are discussed in a philosophical context to explore how we as modern people learn about the Universe and incorporate the findings of science into our world views A concluding chapter provides a summary of modern science's effort to unlock the celestial secrets from the sky and from past civilizations and what these answers mean for us today

Night Skies of Aboriginal Australia Dianne Johnson, 2014-02-19 Written by anthropologist Diane Johnson Night Skies of Aboriginal Australia has been in demand since its publication in 1998 It is a record of the stars and planets which pass across night time

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos, 2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996-09-26 This is a unique new reference book to English language writers and writing throughout the present century in all major genres and from all around the world from Joseph Conrad to Will Self Virginia Woolf to David Mamet Ezra Pound to Peter Carey James Joyce to Amy Tan The survivors of the Victorian age who feature in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Literature in English writers such as Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner Rabindranath Tagore Henry James could hardly have imagined how richly diverse Literature in English would become by the end of the century Fiction plays poetry and a whole range of non fictional writing are celebrated in this informative readable and catholic reference book which includes entries on literary movements periodicals and over 400 individual works as well as articles on some 2 400 authors All the great literary figures are included whether American or Australian British Irish or Indian African or Canadian or Caribbean among them Samuel Beckett Edith Wharton Patrick White T S Eliot Derek Walcott D H Lawrence Tennessee Williams Vladimir Nabokov Wole Soyinka Sylvia Plath as well as a wealth of less obviously canonical writers from Ana s Nin to L M Montgomery Bob Dylan to Terry Pratchett The book comes right up to date with contemporary figures such as Toni Morrison Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Carol Shields Tim Winton Nadine Gordimer Vikram Seth Don Delillo and many others Title entries range from Aaron s Rod to The Zoo Story topics from Angry Young Men Bestsellers and Concrete Poetry to Soap Opera Vietnam Writing and Westerns A lively introduction by John Sutherland highlights the various and sometimes contradictory canons that have emerged over the century and the increasingly international sources of writing in English which the Companion records Catering for all literary tastes this is the most comprehensive single volume guide to modern and postmodern literature By the Book Patrick

Buckridge,Belinda McKay,2007 By the Book is an indispensable history of the literature of Queensland from its establishment as a separate colony in the mid nineteenth century through major economic political and cultural transformations to the beginning of the twenty first century Queensland figures in the Australian imagination as a frontier a place of wild landscapes and wilder politics but also as Australia s playground a soft tourist paradise of warm weather and golden beaches Based partly on real historical divergences from the rest of Australia these contradictory images have been questioned and scrutini Intersemiotic Perspectives on Emotions Susan Petrilli,Meng Ji,2022-07-29 This edited volume explores emotion and its translations through the global world from a variety of different perspectives as a personal socio cultural ideological ethical and political even business investment in the latest phases of globalisation Emotions are powerful in engaging or disengaging individuals communities the masses peoples and nations with distinct linguistic and cultural backgrounds for good but also for evil All depends on how emotions are interpreted that is translated in words or in facts in any case in signs Semiotic reflection on emotions and their interpretation translation is thus of essential importance An adequate understanding of emotional phenomena and their complexities calls for different views which together reveal and illustrate inconsistencies in our modern life The contributors argue that an investigation of types of emotional translation linguistic and non linguistic audio visual theatrical literary racial legal architectural political and so forth can contribute to a better understanding of emotions and how they are exploited to engender injustice unfairness absurdity in contemporary life Nonetheless emotions are also exploited and oriented and this is the intent of our authors to favour the development of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Margaret Kumar,Thushari Welikala,2021-09-03 This book approaches notions of Being Interculturality and New Knowledge Systems through a team of expert contributors who share their evidence based knowledge It attempts to address the missing connections between what is recognised as global knowledge and the underrepresented knowledges that are constructed across higher education Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt,1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature Life

Writing in the Posthuman Anthropocene Ina Batzke, Lea Espinoza Garrido, Linda M. Hess, 2022-01-01 Life Writing in the Posthuman Anthropocene is a timely collection of insightful contributions that negotiate how the genre of life writing traditionally tied to the human perspective and thus anthropocentric qua definition can provide adequate perspectives for an age of ecological disasters and global climate change The volume s eight chapters illustrate the aptness of life writing and life writing studies to critically reevaluate the role of the human vis vis non human others while remaining mindful of persisting inequalities between humans regarding who causes and who suffers damage in the Anthropocene age The authors in this collection not only expand the toolbox of life writing studies by engaging with critical insights from the fields of posthumanism and ecocriticism but in turn also enrich those fields by offering unique approaches to contemplate the responsibility of humans for as well as their relational existence in the posthuman Anthropocene Stories about Stories Brian Attebery, 2014-02 The first comprehensive study of fantasy s uses of myth this book offers insights into the genre s popularity and cultural importance Combining history folklore and narrative theory Attebery s study explores familiar and forgotten fantasies and shows how the genre is also an arena for negotiating new relationships with traditional tales
