Leong, 2005-07-25 Throughout the history of the United States images of China have populated the American imagination Always in flux these images shift rapidly as they did during the early decades of the twentieth century In this erudite and original study Karen J Leong explores the gendering of American orientalism during the 1930s and 1940s Focusing on three women who were popularly and publicly associated with China Pearl S Buck Anna May Wong and Mayling Soong Leong shows how each negotiated what it meant to be American Chinese American and Chinese against the backdrop of changes in the United States as a national community and as an international power The China Mystique illustrates how each of these women encountered the possibilities as well as the limitations of transnational status in attempting to shape her own opportunities During these two decades each woman enjoyed expanding visibility due to an increasingly global mass culture rising nationalism in Asia the emergence of the United States from the shadows of imperialism to world power and the more assertive participation of women in civic and consumer culture

The Magdalene Mystique Betty Conrad Adam, 2006-10-01 The early Christians formed communities to follow the risen Jesus One such community wrote down its gospel story but sometime in those early years the Gospel of Mary Magdalene disappeared In the late nineteenth century it surfaced in the Cairo marketplace and today contemporary Christians are embracing the message of this Magdalene Gospel The Magdalene Mystique invites readers into the spiritual life of an actual community that celebrates Mary Magdalene as mystic and visionary beloved companion of Jesus and first witness to the resurrection Following Mary's gospel the community seeks to embody an ethos of equality and justice With historic background based on the scholarship of prominent researchers including Karen King and Jane Schaberg plus prayers liturgies and real life stories this is a powerful book for group study and private devotion

Successful Meetings, 1996-10 Forty Million Dollar Slaves William C. Rhoden, 2010-02-10

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An explosive and absorbing discussion of race politics and the history of American sports Ebony From Jackie Robinson to Muhammad Ali and Arthur Ashe African American athletes have been at the center of modern culture their on the field heroics admired and stratospheric earnings envied But for all their money fame and achievement says New York Times columnist William C Rhoden black athletes still find themselves on the periphery of true power in the multibillion dollar industry their talent built Provocative and controversial Rhoden's 40 Million Slaves weaves a compelling narrative of black athletes in the United States from the plantation to their beginnings in nineteenth century boxing rings to the history making accomplishments of notable figures such as Jesse Owens Althea Gibson and Willie Mays Rhoden reveals that black athletes evolution has merely been a journey from literal plantations where sports were introduced as diversions to quell revolutionary stirrings to today's figurative ones in the form of collegiate and professional sports programs He details the conveyor belt that brings kids from inner cities and small towns to big time programs where they're cut off from their roots and exploited by team owners sports agents and the media He also sets his sights on athletes like Michael Jordan who he says have abdicated their responsibility to the community with an apathy that borders on treason The power black athletes have today is as limited as when masters forced their slaves to race and fight The primary difference is today's shackles are invisible Praise for Forty Million Dollar Slaves A provocative passionate important and disturbing book The New York Times Book Review Brilliant a beautifully written complex and rich narrative Washington Post Book World A powerful call for more black athletes to give back to their communities Los Angeles Times Nostalgia in Vogue Eve MacSweeney, 2011 Vogue fashion photography with essays drawn from the magazine's Nostalgia column L'Maudit Mystique Steve Hinton, 2014-10-31 Spanning nine generations the L Maudit family has gone to whatever extremes necessary in order to continue their bloodline In 1774 while the family's earliest ancestors were struggling to establish themselves in rural south Louisiana they seriously mistreated a young Haitian woman who then voodoo cursed the family intending for their name to die out Beginning then and continuing through time the family offset their extinction by using several well learned occult practices along with their cunning Now the family's continued existence is dependent upon Marcelle the family's last daughter of childbearing age who is a well educated street smart successful businesswoman At a critical time in Marcelle's life while struggling with her responsibilities of continuing the L Maudit lineage and operating her family's guarded grave robbing business she finds herself the target of a relentless stalker Unknown to Ms L Maudit a villainous association is suspicious of her extraordinary supernatural capabilities and is determined to make her work for them As if Marcelle's life isn't complicated and dangerous enough now she must determine whether the charismatic Daniel Stevens who injects himself into her world is friend or foe In a statewide game of deadly cat and mouse stretching from New Orleans's French Quarter through the historic and haunted Lafayette Cemetery to the L Maudit ancestral homestead deep within the Atchafalaya swamplands Marcelle is put to the ultimate test to protect her family Aliens George Edgar Slusser, 1987 How and when does there come to be an anthropology of the alien This set of essays written for the eighth J Lloyd Eaton Conference on Fantasy and Science Fiction is concerned with the significance of that question Anthropology is the science that must designate the alien if it is to redefine a place for itself in the universe according to the Introduction The idea of the alien is not new In the Renaissance Montaigne's purpose in describing an alien encounter was excoriation man kind was the savage because the artificial devices of nature controlled him Shakespeare's version of the alien encounter was incorporation his character of Caliban is brought to the artificial political world of man and incorporated into the body politic The essays in this volume show in their general orientation that the tribe of Shakespeare still in literary studies at least outnumbers that of Montaigne These essays show the interrelation of the excorporating possibilities to the internal soundings of the alien encounter within the human mind and form This book is divided into three parts Searchings The Quest for the Alien includes The Aliens in Our Mind by Larry Niven Effing the Ineffable by Gregory Benford Border Patrols by Michael Beehler Alien Aliens by Pascal Ducommun and Metamorphoses of the Dragon by George E Slusser Sightings The Aliens among Us includes Discriminating among Friends by John Huntington Sex Superman Sociobiology by Joseph D Miller Cowboys and Telepaths by Eric S Rabkin Robots by Noel Perrin Aliens in the Supermarket by George R Guffey and Aliens R
