

Strange Behavior

We get mentally exhausted not from activity—but from unresolved thoughts

The brain treats rejection like physical pain

You remember emotional pain longer than physical pain

Overthinking is often your brain trying to feel in control

People tend to chase what they can't have

Theorizing the European Neighbourhood Policy Sieglinde Gstöhl, Simon Schunz, 2016-12-19

Despite growing scholarly interest in the EU's flagship policy towards its Eastern and Southern neighbours serious attempts at theory building on the European Neighbourhood Policy ENP have been largely absent from the academic debate This book aims at contributing to fill this research gap in a three fold manner first and foremost it aims at theorizing the ENP as such explaining the origins development and effectiveness of this policy Building on this effort it also pursues the broader objective of addressing certain shortcomings in EU external relations theory and even beyond in International Relations theory Finally it aspires to provide new insights for European policy makers It is one of the first volumes to provide different theoretical perspectives on the ENP by revisiting and building bridges between mainstream and critical theories stimulating academic and policy debates and thus setting a novel less EU centric research agenda This text will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners in EU external relations EU foreign policy the European Neighbourhood Policy and more broadly in European Union Politics and International Relations
