The release of Silence of the Lambs in 1991 which swept the major Academy Awards categories legitimized the serial killer movie a genre that dates back as far as the silent era From Absence of the Good to Zodiac Killer this reference work allows a detailed study of the development of the serial killer film as a distinct genre with its own character types narrative patterns and styles An introduction outlines the historical evolution of this film genre and covers the whole range of cinematic interpretations from the response to Jack the Ripper and other real life serial killers through the late 1960s to the current state of the genre Arranged alphabetically by title the filmography covers over 500 feature films and select television movies Each entry contains a listing of the film s main credits a synopsis of the film a summary of the film s respective merits and a discussion of how they fit into the themes and structures outlined in the introduction Only films that portray the serial killer as a repeat pattern killer and directly or by suggestion reveal the killer s aberrant sexual motivations or their craving for manipulation domination and control with subsequent desires to punish women or society are included Women's

Criminalisation and Offending in Australia and New Zealand Victoria M. Nagy,Georgina Rychner,2023-12-22 Women s Criminalisation and Offending in Australia and New Zealand offers new research and analysis of women s offending and criminalisation in Australia and New Zealand from British settlement through to the late twentieth early twenty first centuries Drawing attention to women as offenders as understood in a multitude of ways this collection highlights how women have been involved with crime and criminal behaviour their treatment inside and outside of courts and prisons and how women s deviation from societal norms have attracted negative attention throughout the decades For Aboriginal and M ori women especially the responses were harsher than what they could be for non indigenous women The chapters cover a broad range of transgressions that women have been actively involved with including theft drug and alcohol abuse and offences organised crime and homicide as well as how women's behaviour and their bodies have been criminalised and responded to by authorities. What this collection demonstrates is that women have often chosen to be involved with crime and criminality while on other occasions their behaviour innocent as it was not considered acceptable by contemporaries resulting in confusion and misapprehension of women who refused to fit a mould. Women's Criminalisation and Offending in Australia and New Zealand brings together historical and criminological methods theories and scholars to shed light on how Australia and New Zealand's colonial later state and national governments have sought to understand control and punish women. This collection will be of interest and value to scholars students and everyone with an interest in criminology history law sociology Indigenous studies and Australian and New Zealand studies.
