Porton, 1994-11 The intellectual dilemma that converts posed to classical Jews played itself out in discussions of marriage religious practice inheritance of property and much else on the one hand converts must be no different from native born Israelites if the god of the Hebrew Bible is a universal deity on the other hand converts must be distinguishable from native born members of the community if a divine covenant was made with Abraham's descendants      Strangers May Marry Anne Hampson, 1983
