continuation of this British military connection      Australia 1944-45 Peter J. Dean, 2016 Thoroughly researched and generously illustrated Australia 1944-45 is the compelling final instalment in Peter Dean's Pacific War series      The Ashgate Research Companion to the Korean War Donald W. Boose, 2016-03-23 This essential companion provides a comprehensive study of the literature on the causes, course and consequences of the Korean War 1950-1953. Aimed primarily at readers with a special interest in military history and contemporary conflict studies, the authors summarize and analyze the key research issues in what for years was known as the Forgotten War. The book comprises three main thematic parts, each with chapters ranging across a variety of crucial topics covering the background, conduct, clashes and outcome of the Korean War. The first part sets the historical stage with chapters focusing on the main participants. The second part provides details on the tactics, equipment and logistics of the belligerents. Part III covers the course of the war with each chapter addressing a key stage of the fighting in chronological order. The enormous increase in writings on the Korean War during the last thirty years, following the release of key primary source documents, has revived and energized the interest of scholars. This essential reference work not only provides an overview of recent research but also assesses what impact this has had on understanding the war.

Australia and the Vietnam War Peter (Fullarton) Edwards, 2014-03-01 The Vietnam War was Australia's longest and most controversial military commitment of the twentieth century, ending in humiliation for the United States and its allies with the downfall of South Vietnam. The war provoked deep divisions in Australian society and politics, particularly since for the first time young men were conscripted for overseas service in a highly contentious ballot system. The Vietnam era is still identified with diplomatic, military and political failure. Was Vietnam a case of Australia fighting other people's wars? Were we really all the way with the United States? How valid was the domino theory? Did the Australian forces develop new tactical methods in earlier Southeast Asian conflicts and just how successful were they against the unyielding enemy in Vietnam? In this landmark book, award-winning historian Peter Edwards skilfully unravels the complexities of the global Cold War, decolonisation in Southeast Asia and Australian domestic politics to provide new, often surprising answers to these questions.

MacArthur's Coalition Peter J. Dean, 2018-04-03 From 1942-1945, the Allies' war in the Southwest Pacific was effectively a bilateral coalition between the United States and Australia under the command of General Douglas MacArthur. By charting the evolution of the military effectiveness of the US-Australian alliance, MacArthur's Coalition puts the relationship between the United States and Australia at the center of the war against Japan. Drawing on new primary source material, Peter J. Dean has written the first substantial book-length treatment of the coalition as a combined military force. This expansive and ambitious book provides a fresh perspective on the Pacific War by providing a close-up, in-depth account of operations in the Southwest Pacific, from the Kokoda Trail campaign to the reconquest of the Philippines and Borneo. Dean's work takes the reader deep into the key military headquarters in the Southwest Pacific and reveals the discussions, debates and arguments between key commanders and staff officers during the course of planning and waging a monumental conflict.

Drawing upon archival records across three continents Dean brings the qualities of these senior officers to life by exploring the critical importance of personalities and leadership in overcoming cultural doctrinal and organizational divides in the largely unequal alliance Set against the practicalities of fighting a fanatical enemy in some of the most inhospitable terrain in the war his book shows how despite these divides and MacArthur's difficult personality the US Australian coalition was able to forge a highly effective and ultimately triumphant fighting machine With its unprecedented view of the joint nature of operations in the Southwest Pacific and its focus on frontline commanders and units in forging a successful fighting force MacArthur's Coalition illuminates a critical aspect of the Allied victory in World War II History as Policy Ron Huisken, Meredith Thatcher, 2007-12-01 The fortieth anniversary of the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre's founding provided the opportunity to assemble many of Australia's leading analysts and commentators to review some of the more significant issues that should define Australian defence policy The papers collected in this volume are not informed by a common view of where Australia should focus its defence policy but all address themes that should figure prominently in this difficult but essential task Provided by publisher Australia 1942 Peter Dean, 2013 This book explores the way in which battlefields Understand the controversies of recent conflicts including in Vietnam and Iraq Australian Military Operations In Vietnam Albert Palazzo, 2010-08-30 From 1962 to 1972 Australia joined the United States in fighting a communist inspired insurgency war in the jungles of South Vietnam against infiltrators who sought to overthrow the local government Over 50 000 Australians served in Vietnam 519 lost their lives and the conflict ended ignominiously in the insurgents victory Over 30 years later Australia again finds itself joined with the United States in a struggle against an insurgency this time in the deserts of Iraq and the mountains of Afghanistan Although now in the past the Vietnam War resonates with lessons for the Australian Army as it strives to defeat not Communism but Terrorism Australian Military Operations in Vietnam highlights some of the successes and failures of an earlier generation of officers for the benefit of today's leaders Reviewing Britain's Presence East of Suez Maike Hausen, 2022-06-14 Maike Hausen presents a transnational multi perspective review of strategic and security discussions among the former British white settler colonies Australia Canada and New Zealand in the 1960s Focusing on the foreign policy debate surrounding the British decision to withdraw their military East of Suez from Southeast Asia she reviews extensive source material to examine the transformation of political diplomatic and strategic ties between Great Britain and Australia Canada and New Zealand By embedding the East of Suez discussion into a larger framework of long term postcolonial transformations and developments of the Cold War and decolonization the study traces how the British decision upset the traditional conduct of concerted foreign policy and led to notions of crisis and uncertainty as well as to reviews that would ultimately contribute to more independent national outlooks and policies AIF in Battle Jean Bou, 2016-06-13 By the end of the First World War the combat formations of the Australian Imperial Force AIF in both France and the Middle East were considered among the British Empire's most effective troops While sometimes a source of pride and not a little boasting how the force came to be so was not due to any inherent national prowess or trait Instead it was the culmination of years of training organisational change battlefield experimentation and hard won experience a process that included not just the Australians but the wider British imperial armies as well This book brings together some of Australia's foremost military historians to outline how the military neophytes that left Australia's shores in 1914 became the battle winning troops of 1918 It will trace the evolution of several of the key arms of the AIF including the infantry the light horse the artillery and the flying corps and also consider how the various arms worked together alongside other troops of the British Empire to achieve a remarkably high level of battlefield effectiveness The Hard Slog Karl James, 2012-04-05 The first major study since 1963 to examine the historic Australian military campaign of 1944 1945 at Bougainville in the South Pacific The Australian Army from Whitlam to Howard John Blaxland, 2014 The Australian Army from Whitlam to Howard is the first critical examination of Australia's post Vietnam military operations spanning the 35 years between the election of Gough Whitlam and the defeat of John Howard John Blaxland explores the casualty cringe felt by political leaders following the war and how this impacted subsequent operations He contends that the Australian Army's rehabilitation involved common individual and collective training and reaffirmation of the Army's regimental and corps identities. He shows how the Army regained its confidence to play leading roles in East Timor, Bougainville and the Solomon Islands and to contribute to combat operations further afield. At a time when the Australian Army's future strategic role is the subject of much debate and as the Asian Century gathers pace and commitment in Afghanistan draws to an end, this work is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding the modern context of Australia's military land force.

Dreadful Lady over the Mekong Delta looks at the men of No 2 Squadron and the operations they flew in the Vietnam War in their Canberra bombers. From April 1967 the squadron spent four years attacking enemy targets, many of them in the Mekong Delta region, and contending with the politics, weather and fog of war. The riverine operations supported by No 2 Squadron were but a small part of an allied effort to disrupt the enemy's movement of troops and supplies to locations in South Vietnam. It was, according to one commentator, a kind of guerrilla warfare conducted in a navy environment. Bob Howe arrived in Vietnam in 1969 as a youthful Canberra navigator/bomb aimer, but much of his time was spent as a specialist in bombing operations. His time there provided him with the firsthand experience and detailed information to write this book. This book in its original format was first published in 2016 by the RAAF's Air Power Development Centre, filling a gap in the recording of the RAAF's operations in Vietnam. It also describes how crews overcame the difficulties of operating in an intense Asian war in an aircraft that was designed for a completely different environment. This new edition is intended to bring the experiences and exploits of Bob Howe, No 2 Squadron and its Canberra bomber aircraft to life for a new generation of reader.
