Strategic Environmental Assessment in Action Riki Therivel, 2012-12-06. This practical guide written by a practitioner for practitioners presents a coherent and straightforward how to do it approach to the strategic environmental assessment SEA process. Part one provides an overview of the aims, principles, advantages and problems of SEA as well as looking at key SEA regulations and their requirements. Part two examines the SEA process in considerable detail including setting the policy context, describing the baseline, identifying alternatives, predicting and evaluating impacts and using the SEA information in decision making. Part three is devoted to assuring SEA quality with a discussion of resources and capacity building. This new edition incorporates five years worth of practical application of the SEA Directive and SEA practice more broadly. Additions and updates include the findings of various reviews into SEA effectiveness and efficiency, emerging approaches to identifying and comparing alternatives, cumulative impacts, the likely future baseline without the plan, documenting changes made to the plan in response to the SEA process and environmental limits, consideration of both the baseline led and the objectives led approach to SEA and the two approaches' advantages and disadvantages. SEA's links to appropriate assessment of plans under the European Habitats Directive. Employing a host of real life case studies and examples, each chapter presents a range of techniques and discusses what the final product should look like. Appendices provide a wealth of additional information including text of the SEA Directive and the UNECE Protocol on SEA and a toolkit of SEA techniques. The approach and techniques in Strategic Environmental Assessment in Action are useful for anyone carrying out or studying SEA at any level from policy to programme, international to local but particularly for practitioners responsible for implementing the SEA Directive.

Perspectives on Strategic Environmental Assessment Maria Rosario Partidario, 2024-11-01. An environmental assessment must be performed whenever a property transaction takes place. Those who don't may find themselves responsible for the past misdeeds of others. This book contains contributions by professionals from various locations who use Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA) as a tool applied to water management issues. SEA helps make decisions that increase sustainability. Because of its procedural nature, it necessarily becomes tailor-made to different applications. Easily understood and geographic in scope, this book presents leading edge thinking and first hand knowledge on the applications of SEA in water management. Perspectives on Strategic Environmental Assessment is a comprehensive guidebook for performing environmental assessments all over the world. No other source provides you with as much information on the applications of SEA as a policy assessment and management tool This book provides a blueprint for environmental assessments that safeguards you from the oversights of others

Environmental Impact Assessment and Strategic Environmental Assessment Hussein Abaza, Ronald Bisset, Barry Sadler, United Nations Environment Programme, 2004 The main objective of this volume is to provide information and guidance on EIA and SEA good practice with particular application to developing countries and countries in transition to market economies It is intended to support local practitioners in the design and implementation of appropriate country specific EIA and SEA arrangements and in addressing emerging demands for a more integrated approach to decision making in support of sustainable development

Eagle Bulletin The European Directive on strategic environmental assessment requires implementing legislation and guidance in each of the European member states Other countries worldwide are also establishing procedures for strategic environmental assessment This very timely book on analytical strategic environmental assessment ANSEA deals head on with the decision making systems that these regulations and guidance documents are supposed to influence ANSEA focuses on the quality of the decision making process rather than on the impacts of the decision on describing the decision process rather than the output of the decisions and on ensuring full integration of environmental values in decision making From the foreword by Riki Therivel Analytical Strategic Environmental Assessment ANSEA is an insightful new approach to environmental evaluation based on decision theory policy analysis and environmental considerations These concepts though not new in their own fields of application are combined and integrated in an innovative fashion This book presents recent research on the implementation of the ANSEA approach which aims to ensure environmental values are properly integrated into the decision making process ANSEA was developed to contribute to the systematic integration of environmental protection objectives in strategic decision making which in turn will contribute to the promotion of sustainable development The method can be applied to analyse how environmental and sustainability issues are addressed in decision making processes at both the national and local level for a variety of different policies Importantly the focus is on evaluating the decision making process itself rather than the quantitative output of an assessment With explicatory examples and practical case studies the distinguished interdisciplinary authors clearly illustrate how a decision centred approach to environmental assessment can be successfully achieved At a time when a new European directive requires the implementation of strategic environmental assessment SEA into all relevant decision making processes this timely book will be required reading for environmental policymakers in all EU member states It will also be a valuable source of information and reference for researchers academics and consultants in the fields of planning environmental evaluation and environmental management Strategic Environmental Assessment in Policy and Sector Reform World Bank, The University of Gothenburg, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences, The Netherlands Commission for Environmental Assessment, 2010-11-11 This book presents the findings and recommendations of the evaluation of the World Bank's Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA Pilot Program It shows that SEA can contribute to improving development policy and sector reform by calling attention to environmental and social priorities strengthening constituencies enhancing policy capacities and improving social accountability It also provides guidance for undertaking SEA in policy and sector reform Although it acknowledges the need for tailoring SEA to the context of specific sectors and countries the book discusses in detail and illustrates with examples the analytical work and participatory processes required for effective SEA at the policy level It suggests that the time is ripe for scaling up SEA in development policy and sector reform and recommends the establishment of a global alliance on environmental and climate change mainstreaming to support developing countries efforts for achieving sustainable development The book concludes by arguing that SEA applied to sector reform and development policy is a critical step for these efforts to be successful This title responds to demand for SEA approaches at the policy level from policymakers development and environmental specialists of bilateral and multilateral institutions and environmental assessment specialists This publication is the result of joint work by the Environment Department of the World Bank the Environmental Economics Unit at the Department of Economics of the University of Gothenburg EEU the Swedish EIA Centre at the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences and the Netherlands Commission for Environmental Assessment NCEA In line with the Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness the book also contributes to harmonization of SEA approaches by the donor community that is led by the SEA Task Team of the OECD Development Assistance Committee
