T L C Travel Language Culture:

Lifestyle Media in Asia Fran Martin, Tania Lewis, 2016-05-20 Across Asia consumer culture is increasingly shaping everyday life with neoliberal economic and social policies increasingly adopted by governments who see their citizens as individualised sovereign consumers with choices about their lifestyles and identities One aspect of this development has been the emergence of new wealthy middle classes with lifestyle aspirations shaped by national regional and global media especially by a range of new popular lifestyle media which includes magazines television and mobile and social media This book explores how far everyday conceptions and experiences of identity are being transformed by media cultures across the region It considers a range of different media in different Asian contexts contrasting how the shaping of lifestyles in Asia differs from similar processes in Western countries and assessing how the new lifestyle media represents not just a new emergent media culture but also illustrates wider cultural and social changes in the Asian region

Telemodernities Tania Lewis, Fran Martin, Wanning Sun, 2016-09-09 Yoga gurus on lifestyle cable channels targeting time pressured Indian urbanites Chinese dating shows promoting competitive individualism Taiwanese domestic makeover formats combining feng shui with life planning advice Asian TV screens are increasingly home to a wild proliferation of popular factual programs providing lifestyle guidance to viewers In Telemodernities Tania Lewis Fran Martin and Wanning Sun demonstrate how lifestyle oriented popular factual television illuminates key aspects of late modernities in South and East Asia offering insights not only into early twenty first century media cultures but also into wider developments in the nature of public and private life identity citizenship and social engagement Drawing on extensive interviews with television industry professionals and audiences across China India Taiwan and Singapore Telemodernities uses popular lifestyle television as a tool to help us understand emergent forms of identity sociality and capitalist modernity in Asia
