Taft Story:

The Taft Story William Smith White, 1954 The story of the Ohio senator A Presidents Story Too Brad McKim, 2024-01-31 Between Lincoln and FDR the Presidency and the United States come of age In the wake of the Civil War fourteen men will succeed Abraham Lincoln and attempt to reunify the United States As their personal tales intertwine and overlap on their way to the Presidency they defer to Congress until it is clear that Democrats and Republicans are more concerned with the prerogatives of power and patronage than Lincoln's pledge of freedom and opportunity for all Americans The 19th century Presidents battle with Congress to reform how jobs and other benefits are dispensed while the Presidents of the early 20th century find themselves presiding over a country that has transitioned from an agricultural economy supported by slave and immigrant labor to an industrial economy generating the wealth that thrusts the country onto the world stage Through it all the Presidents continue the novel practice of handing over power peacefully even in the face of a Depression that will challenge the United States newfound status as a world power Brad McKim is a masterful storyteller He seamlessly wove the stories of our first 15 presidents together into a compelling interesting and informative narrative Scott Barker Author The Kings of War How Our Modern Presidents Hijacked Congress War Making Powers and What to Do About It McKim weaves fascinating stories of presidential lives from their youth through early love affairs and careers into political prominence Not a retelling of common knowledge this book reveals a fabric of personal stories not found in high school history books Jeff Bensch Author History of American Holidays I have read countless books on the country's chief executives and I learned something about each president that I never knew before I could not put A Presidents Story down and can't wait to read the sequel Bradley Nahrstadt Author Alton B Parker The Man Who Challenged Roosevelt The Senate, 1789-1989: Addresses on the history of the United States Senate Robert C.
