Filipinos in Canada Roland Sintos Coloma, Bonnie S. McElhinny, Lisa M. Davidson, John Paul Catungal, Ethel Tungohan, 2012-01-01 The Philippines became Canada s largest source of short and long term migrants in 2010 surpassing China and India both of which are more than ten times larger The fourth largest racialized minority group in the country the Filipino community is frequently understood by such figures as the victimized nanny the selfless nurse and the gangster youth On one hand these narratives concentrate attention in narrow and stereotypical ways on critical issues On the other they render other problems facing Filipino communities invisible This landmark book the first wide ranging edited collection on Filipinos in Canada explores gender migration and labour youth spaces and subjectivities representation and community resistance to certain representations Looking at these from the vantage points of anthropology cultural studies education geography history information science literature political science sociology and women and gender studies Filipinos in Canada provides a strong foundation for future work in this area

Ethnic Marketing Guilherme Pires, 2014-12-05 A globalization process epitomised by historically large cross border population movements with rapidly improving networking and communication technologies has resulted in the growth of ethnic diversity across newly industrialised economies Instead of adapting to a dominant host country culture many ethnic minorities seek to preserve their identities both as diasporic communities and within their adopted countries For marketers it has been recognised as crucial to understand the unique needs of these individuals and to develop superior marketing strategies that meet their preferences Ethnic Marketing shows the rich opportunities that ethnic minority communities have to offer as well as offering instruction on the design and implementation of effective social and business marketing strategies The text offers practical guidance on assessing the needs of individual ethnic communities and a guide to marketing to these communities within various countries Since the publication of Pires and Stanton s 2005 book there has been continuing changes in the political social and economic environment in many countries which have growing ethnic minorities Incorporating new research across disciplines on the marketing relevance of ethnic minorities this book also integrates contributions and excerpts from in depth interviews conducted with leading marketing experts whose views and insights stimulate discussion and result in an invaluable guide to best practice in ethnic marketing across the world plus expert insights into the future of this dynamic area This is an excellent resource for researchers and advanced marketing students taking both postgraduate and undergraduate courses in marketing management or strategy as well as government marketing practitioners and businesses seeking ways to reach ethnic communities

Filipino Nation ,1929 The Tagalog Language Constantino Lendoyro,1909 Report of the Governor General of the Philippine Islands to the Secretary of War Philippines. Gobernador-General,1927 Filipino English and Taglish Roger M. Thompson,2003-01-01 English competes with Tagalog and Taglish a mixture of English and Tagalog for the affections of Filipinos To understand the competing ideologies that underlie this switching between languages this book looks at the language situation from multiple perspectives Part A reviews the social and political forces that have propelled English through its life cycle in the Philippines from the 1898 arrival of Admiral Dewey to the 1998 election of Joseph Estrada Part B looks at the social support for English in Metro Manila and the provinces with a focus on English teachers and their personal and public use of English Part C examines the language of television sport broadcasts commercials interviews sitcoms and movies and the language of newspapers from various linguistic sociolinguistic and sociocultural perspectives The results put into perspective the short lived language revolution that took place at the turn of the twenty first century Ethnic Englishes, Indigenous and Migrant Languages Gerhard Leitner,2013-02-06 Australia is host to many languages English indigenous migrant and contact Its multilingualism the sociopolitical changes that have been impacting upon them and its wide ranging language policy efforts are well known What has been missing so far is a comprehensive integrative study of the entire habitat of languages the contacts and interactions that have been taking place from the beginning of colonization to the present day with their linguistic outcomes This book and its companion Australia s Many Voices Australian English The National Language develop and apply such an approach The present book deals with non mainstream varieties of English indigenous migrant and contact languages Based on census and other data to 2003 it addresses themes such as language demographics language shift and socio psychological factors that bear upon it Language change is discussed from the angle of the uprooting of indigenous languages from their original context of transplantation and of contact with English Pidgins and creoles are located inside the Pacific context of the nineteenth century This study provides an analysis of language and language education policies to 2003 and connects this theme with the role of Australian English the national language It suggests that Australia s habitat is reaching a new stage of plurilingual tolerance The book is of interest for specialists from a wide range of language and policy disciplines Its discursive non technical style makes it accessible to non specialists with no background in linguistics
