Tagebuecher Aphorismen Essays & Reden Robert Musil, Geist und Literatur Edith Düsing, Hans-Dieter Klein, 2008

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies

Geary's Guide to the World's Great Aphorists James Geary, 2008-12-08 Both an expert and a collector James Geary has devoted his life to aphorisms and the last few years to organizing indexing and even translating them The result is Geary's Guide featuring aphorists like Voltaire Twain Shakespeare Nietzsche Woody Allen Muhammad Ali Emily Dickinson and Mae West as well as international practitioners appearing in English for the first time But it is more than just a conventional anthology It is also an encyclopedia containing brief biographies of each author in addition to a selection of his or her aphorisms The book is a field guide too with aphorists organized into eight different species such as Comics Critics Icons and Painters Poets The book's two indexes by author and by subject make it easily searchable while its unique organizational structure and Geary's lively biographical entries set it apart from all previous reference works A perfect follow up to Geary's New York Times bestseller The World in a Phrase Geary's Guide is eminently suitable for browsing or for sustained reading A comprehensive guide to our most intimate idiosyncratic literary form the book is an indispensable tool for writers and public speakers as well as essential reading for all language lovers

Rilke Charlie Louth, 2020 A full length study of the work of the German poet Rainer Maria Rilke 1875-1926 that studies the breadth of his work including the translations and the late poems written in French

The Mind of Modernism Mark S. Micale, 2004 This vanguard collection of original and in depth essays explores the intricate interplay of the aesthetic and psychological domains during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and considers the reasons why a common Modernist project took shape when and in the circumstances that it did These changes occurred precisely when the distinctively modern disciplines of psychology psychiatry and psychoanalysis established their scientific foundations and achieved the forms in which we largely know them today This volume examines the dense web of connections joining the aesthetic and psychological realms in the modern era charting historically the emergence of the ongoing modern discussion surrounding such issues as identity formation sexuality and the unconscious The contributors form a distinguished and diversified group of scholars who write about a wide range of cultural fields including philosophy the novel and poetry drama dance film and photography as well as medicine psychology and the occult sciences

Edmund Rubbra: Symphonist Leo Black,2014 Leo Black a pupil of Rubbra in the 1950s presents a full scale study of his symphonies the first for twenty years A biographical sketch throws light on legends about the BBC and Rubbra there are full programme notes on eachsymphony with accounts of important non symphonic works The music of Edmund Rubbra 1901 1986 has been unjustly neglected arguably because its wide ranging nature makes it difficult to categorise He is perhaps best known as a symphonist his eleven symphonies covered a period of musical and political upheaval 1934 1980 the first four reflecting the uneasy later 1930s with a second global conflict no longer avoidable The immediately post war ones document new emotional depths and his conversion whilethe final symphonies show a man still in search of peace and reconciliation overlooked by the world but certain he was on the right path Leo Black a pupil of Rubbra at Oxford in the 1950s here presents a sympatheticfull scale study of these works the first for some twenty years A succinct biographical sketch throws light on legends about the BBC and Rubbra there are full programme notes on each symphony with shorter accounts of important non symphonic works in particular a triptych of concertos from the 1950s and major liturgical pieces composed around the time of the Second Vatican Council after Rubbra s conversion to Catholicism He also deals with the vexed question of Rubbra s mysticism LEO BLACK is a former BBC chief producer for music and author of the highly acclaimed Franz Schubert Music and Belief 2003 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice Masood Ashraf Raja,Nick T. C. Lu,2023-11-20 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice is a comprehensive and multi purpose collection on this important topic With contributors working in various fields the Companion provides in depth analyses of both the cumulative and emergent issues obstacles praxes propositions and theories of social justice The first section offers a historical overview of major developments and debates in the field while the following sections look in more detail at the key traditions and show how literature and theory can be applied as analytical tools to real world inequalities and the impact of doing so The contributors provide reviews of major theoretical traditions including Marxism feminism Critical Race Theory disability studies and queer studies They also share literary analyses of influential authors including W E B Du Bois Yang Kui Edwidge Danticat Octavia Butler and Rivers Solomon amongst others The final section considers future possibilities for theory and action of justice drawing specifically from theories and knowledges in decolonial Indigenous environmental and posthumanist studies This authoritative volume draws on the intersections between literary studies and social movements in order to provide scholars students and activists alike with a complete collection of the most up to date information on both canonical and emerging texts and case studies globally The German Novelle Martin

Swales,2019-04-23 Martin Swales explores the interrelation in the novelle of aesthetic theory and textual practice suggesting that the characteristic mode of the novelle is a specific kind of narrative constellation advocated by theoreticians and practiced by writers The author s theory not only serves to illuminate our understanding of the novelle but also advances our knowledge of genre theory Swales analyzes theoretical writings as if they themselves are literary texts that reflect the age in which they were written By considering them in relation to seven principal topics he shows how they share a central concern with cases that are exceptions to the normal social order The response of each author implies the reluctance of society to have its premises called into question and to adjust in such a way as to accommodate these cases Swales applies this theory to seven nineteenth century novellen Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
