Karline McLain worked in the ACK production offices and had many conversations with Anant Pai founder and publisher and with artists, writers and readers about why the comics are so popular and what messages they convey. In this intriguing study she explores the making of the comic books and the kinds of editorial and ideological choices that go into their production.

Romance Fandom in 21st-Century Pakistan Javaria Farooqui, 2024-10-31. Romance Fandom in 21st century Pakistan offers the first major study of English speaking romance fandom in South Asia providing a new reader centric model that engages with romance readers as genre experts. Javaria Farooqui inspects the popular Anglophone romance reading community in Pakistan and develops a model for analysing genre romance novels through the lens of the readers perspective and preferences. Using focus group interviews and close textual analysis Romance Fandom in 21st century Pakistan explores where and how readers access books of their choice and explains why the detailed descriptions of dresses, food and spaces in historical romance novels of the Regency era exemplify good taste for this distinctive readership. Sitting at the intersection of literary studies, genre studies and fan studies this book considers the reception of Anglophone romance fiction by reading communities of colour.
