Ultimate Chicago Cubs Time Machine Book Martin Gitlin, 2021-04-01 The Ultimate Chicago Cubs Time Machine presents a timeline format that not only includes the Cubs greatest moments including their World Series appearance in 2016 and individual achievements but also focuses on some very unusual seasons and events such as the 1872 season when the Great Chicago Fire destroyed their stadium and uniforms There are dozens of impressive wild wacky and wonderful stories over the years regarding Cubs history and Gitlin is the perfect person to write it with his trademark humor and thorough knowledge of team lore The Cubs Win the Pennant! John C. Skipper, 2004-05-19 On September 29 1945 the Chicago Cubs fireball pitcher Paul Erickson threw a curve ball to Tommy O'Brien of the Pittsburgh Pirates with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning O'Brien's knees buckled as any hitter's knees would when he expects a fastball but gets a curve instead O'Brien had reason to be surprised it was Erickson's first curveball of the game and some even claim that it was his first of the year The ball crossed home plate for strike three The Cubs won 4-3 and captured the National League championship The Cubs journey to the National League pennant in 1945 is detailed here The author interviewed nine surviving members of the 1945 Cubs including pitchers Erickson Hank Borowy Hank Wyse and Claude Passeau second baseman Don Johnson shortstop Lenny Merullo backup catcher Dewey Williams first baseman Phil Cavaretta and outfielder Andy Pafko and includes their recollections of that magical Cubs season The Bilko Athletic Club Gaylon H. White, 2014-03-06 During the 1956 baseball season in the city of Los Angeles Mickey Mantle's pursuit of Babe Ruth's single season home run record was matched only by the day to day drama of Steve Bilko's exploits in the Pacific Coast League While Mantle was winning the Triple Crown in the American League Bilko was doing the same in the highest of all the minor leagues with the Los Angeles Angels He led the league hitters in eight categories and the Angels romped to the pennant Bilko hit one mighty home run after another to earn Minor League Player of the Year honors and inspire the team's nickname The Bilko Athletic Club The Bilko Athletic Club tells the story of the 1956 Los Angeles Angels a team of castoffs and kids built around Steve Bilko a bulky beer loving basher of home runs Author Gaylon H White provides an intimate portrait of life in minor league baseball in the 1950s and gives readers a glimpse inside the heads and hearts of the players as they experience the same doubts and frustrations many face in the pursuit of a dream The Angels unforgettable season unfolds through stories told by the players themselves as they racked up runs and rolled to a 107 61 won loss record finishing sixteen games ahead of their closest competitor Featuring in depth interviews with Steve Bilko and twenty five of his 56 Angels teammates The Bilko Athletic Club also includes several photos and is highlighted by never before told anecdotes A fascinating account of a season to remember The Bilko Athletic Club will take fans and historians of the national pastime back to the golden era of baseball

Frank Robinson John C. Skipper, 2014-11-14 Frank Robinson was one of the greatest baseball players of the 20th century He was Rookie of the Year for the Cincinnati Reds in 1956 won the Triple Crown in 1966 led the Baltimore Orioles to four World Series appearances and is the only player in baseball history to be voted Most Valuable Player in both the American and National leagues When his playing career was over he became the first black manager in both leagues and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1982 Amid these accomplishments he continually strived for recognition as if he had something to prove and as a manager demanded respect from his players and his bosses This is a biography of a man who crowded the plate in all aspects of his baseball life

The 1964 Republican Convention John C. Skipper, 2016-04-07 Arizona senator Barry Goldwater was a staunch conservative more interested in advancing the conservative cause than running for president A Draft Goldwater campaign three years in the making catapulted him to the Republican nomination in 1964 despite bitter opposition within the party He was defeated in a landslide by Lyndon Johnson but the right had established itself as a reinvigorated force in the years to come This is a chronicle of the 1964 Republican convention and the beginnings of the modern conservative movement

Billy Southworth John C. Skipper, 2013-04-16 Billy Southworth was the most successful major league baseball manager of the 1940s including the three straight years in which his St Louis Cardinal teams won more than 100 games He won three National League pennants with the Cardinals and one with the Boston Braves and his 597 winning percentage is the fifth highest in baseball history But Southworth was dogged by demons off the field including the deaths of three children On the field his achievements were minimized by many because they occurred during the war years when the baseball talent level was below par When he finally got top recognition being elected to the Hall of Fame in 2007 the honor occurred 38 years after his death

Roosevelt's Revolt John C. Skipper, 2018-04-03 The presidential election of 1912 was the only one whose candidates included an incumbent president a former president and a future president Theodore Roosevelt in the Oval Office from 1901 to 1909 chose not to run again When his former Secretary of War William Howard Taft took controversial actions as his successor Roosevelt challenged him for the 1912 Republican nomination Taft emerged as the nominee and Roosevelt ran as a third party candidate on the Progressive Bull Moose ticket causing a split in the GOP that allowed Democrat Woodrow Wilson to win the presidency The author examines the election in detail and traces the effects of Roosevelt s actions on the Republican Party for decades Appendices detail Republican primary results and all of the parties platforms and provide a summary of presidential assassinations and attempts

A Biographical Dictionary of Major League Baseball Managers John C. Skipper, 2015-06-08 Earl Weaver put his best defensive players on the field early in the game rather than make late inning defensive replacements and he didn t like to bunt figuring if you played for only one run that s all you d get Whitey Herzog by contrast became one of the greats by using players who could bunt and by playing for one run over and over again Full coverage of them and 600 other major league managers over a 125 year period can be found in this work The entries are based on interviews standard data and anecdotes from owners coaches and players Information includes birth and death dates teams and dates managed win loss records winning percentages and standings Lists are included of managers of 1 000 games or more those with one game careers those with the best winning percentages and those with the most wins A complete list of managers in the history of each team is provided
