The House of Our Ancestors Thomas Reuter, 2021-10-25 The House of Our Ancestors is a study of the Mountain Balinese or Bali Aga an ethnic group with a distinct history and culture who are thought to be the indigenous people of Bali Indonesia In popular ideas of Balinese identity the highland people feature as the conceptual counterpart to the royal houses established in the southern lowlands of the island Hidden in shadow of this courtly culture the world of the highland Balinese has been largely ignored even though Bali counts among the most researched localities in the world This book explores their social organization and status economy from the perspective of an innovative theory of precedence Regional domains villages and origin houses among the Bali Aga are all conceived and ranked in reference to the basic ideas of a sacred origin in the past and of an order of precedence connecting the past with the present The analysis of precedence ranking evident at all levels of Bali Aga social organization leads to the development of a new theory of status for Austronesian societies that departs radically from the notion of hierarchy as proposed by Louis Dumont in his classic study of the Indian caste system

Tatulingga Danker Schaareman, 1986 Critical Reflections on Religion and Media in Contemporary Bali Richard Fox, 2011 Drawing on ethnographic and archival research conducted on the Indonesian island of Bali this book demonstrates that more nuanced attention to problems of media will have serious implications for how we think about the study of religions past and present Custodians of the Sacred Mountains Thomas A. Reuter, 2002-01-31 Custodians of the Sacred Mountains is the first comprehensive ethnography of the Bali Aga a large ethnic minority that occupies the island's central highlands The Bali Aga are popularly viewed as the indigenous counterparts to other Balinese who trace their origin to invaders from the Javanese kingdom of Majapahit who have ruled Bali from the fourteenth century A D Although Bali remains one of the most intensely researched localities in the world the Bali Aga have long been overshadowed by the more exotic courtly culture of the south A closer analysis of the changing position of the Bali Aga within Balinese society provides a key to understanding the politics and social process of cultural representation in Bali and beyond The process is marked by a blend of representational competition and cooperation among the Bali Aga themselves among the Bali Aga and southern Balinese and later among the island's aristocratic elites and foreign colonizers or scholars and state authorities The study of this process raises important issues about the establishment and maintenance of status and power structures at regional national and global levels Custodians of the Sacred Mountains explores the marginalization of the Bali Aga in light of a critical theory of cultural representation and calls for a morally engaged approach to ethnographic research It proposes an intersubjective and communicative model of human interaction as the foundation for understanding the relative significance of cooperation and competition in the cultural production of knowledge Pura Besakih D.J. Stuart-Fox, 2022-07-11 Pura Besakih is the paramount Hindu temple on Bali Located high on the slopes of the volcano Mt Agung it has developed over more than a thousand years into a great complex of 22 separate temples the largest and central being Pura Penataran Agung The annual cycle of more than seventy rituals which symbolically link the temples into a whole culminates in the centenary ceremony called Ekadasa Rudra last held in 1979 The temple complex state supported at least since the fifteenth century has undergone a series of architectural and ritual changes This study combines an analysis of textual and historical sources with the fieldwork methods of anthropology in creating a unified interpretation of this great temple Tatulingga Danker Schaareman, 1986 From Subjects to Citizens Lyn Parker, 2004-03-01 This book analyses the processes by which conservative and introverted Balinese villagers have been incorporated into the Indonesian nation state Balinese Music in Context Danker Schaareman, 1992
