Teacher Mentor A Dialogue For Collaborative Learning:

Teacher/mentor Peg Graham,1999 Focuses on teaching techniques and dilemmas related to teaching secondary English programs identifying key issues from the perspectives of university supervisors teacher candidates and cooperating teachers

Teacher - Mentor Peg Graham,Sally Hudson-Ross,1998-10-01 Teacher Narrative as Critical Inquiry Joy S.

Ritchie,David E. Wilson,2000 Research on teacher learning has too often excluded personal development in considering professional development This timely book argues that the development of a professional identity is inextricable from personal identity It suggests that when teachers are given the opportunity to compose their own stories of learning within a supportive community they can then begin to compose new narratives of identity and practice This book is a critical tool for educators seeking to refine their teaching practice and author their own development Narrative Inquiry in Practice

Nona Lyons,Vicki Kubler LaBoskey,2002-09-06 What role does narrative play in building teachers knowledge In this timely volume foremost scholars in the field of education not only open but they deepen the conversation about the uses of narrative in the construction of teachers knowledge An Introduction to Standards-Based Reflective Practice for Middle and High School Teaching

Elizabeth Spalding,Jesus Garcia,Joseph A. Braun,2010 Reading Families Catherine Compton-Lilly,2003 This dynamic text offers a rare glimpse into the literacy development of urban children and their families role in it Based on the author s candid interviews with her first grade students their parents and grandparents this book challenges the stereotypical view that urban parents don t care about their children s education By listening closely to the voices of her students and their families the author helps us to move beyond negative assumptions revealing complexities that have previously been undocumented A Critical Inquiry Framework for K-12 Teachers JoBeth Allen,Lois

Alexander,2015-04-25 This dynamic book provides powerful ideas to guide pedagogy and a curriculum model for helping students connect with issues in their lives while meeting standards Vivid portraits of K12 classrooms illustrate how teachers used a human rights framework to engage students in critical inquiry of relevant social issues such as immigration rights religious tolerance racial equality countering the effects of poverty and respect for people with disabilities The book shows how a group of teachers worked together to develop a critical content framework using the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child Chapters highlight lively classroom and community action projects Vygotsky and Literacy Research Peter

Smagorinsky,2012-01-01 In this book Peter Smagorinsky reconsiders his many publications employing Vygotsky s theory of culturally mediated human development and applies them through a unified and coherent series of chapters to literacy research This exploration takes previously published work and incorporates it into a new and sustained argument regarding the application of Vygotsky s ideas to current questions regarding the nature of literacy and how to investigate it as a cultural phenomenon that contributes to human growth in social context To conduct this inquiry Smagorinsky first provides an overview that contextualizes Vygotsky both in his own time and in efforts to extrapolate from his Soviet origins to the 21st

Century world This consideration includes attention to the current context for literacy studies He then reviews current conceptions of literacy in the realms of reading writing and additional tool use grounding each in a Vygotskian perspective The book s final chapters take a critical look at both research method and the writing of research reports taking into account both research and research reports as social constructions based in disciplinary practices On the whole this volume makes an important contribution to Vygotskian studies and literacy research through the author s careful alignment between theory and practice
