Teacher A Christlike Model For Students:

Achieving Academic Integration in a Christian School Setting Herbert W. Byrne, 2003-07 The Outrageous Idea of Christian Teaching Perry Lynn Glanzer, Nathan F. Alleman, George M. Marsden, 2019 Thousands of professors claim Christian as their primary identity and teaching as their primary vocational responsibility But how does being a Christian change one's teaching Indeed should it The Outrageous Idea of the Christian Teacher explores the responses of more than 2300 Christian professors from 48 different institutions across North America to find out Challenging Concepts for Contemporary Christian Education Herbert W. Byrne, 2003-07 The Classroom Teacher's Guide to Special Education Dena D. Slanda, Lindsey Pike, Mary E. Little, 2025-03-12 The Classroom Teacher's Guide to Special Education explores the transformative role the classroom teacher plays in the lives of their students including the lives of students with disabilities This book leads pre service and in service teachers on a journey of discovery introducing foundational practices that are not just beneficial but essential for every student This book serves as a core resource for learning about and understanding key components of special education from the classroom teachers role and perspective More than a guide to special education in the general education setting this book empowers teachers to embrace inclusive perspectives by building the knowledge skills and confidence to meet the diverse learning needs of all the students Teacher! Neal McBride, 1982 Pedagogy and Education for Life Trevor H. Cairney, 2018-04-30 There are many books on Christian education but few consider pedagogy with a biblical focus on formation and a grounding in varied related disciplines This book seeks to recapture the term pedagogy and place it at the center of the teacher's role not as a pseudonym for other things but as the critical foundation for the orchestration of classroom life This is a view of pedagogy that accepts that children come to classrooms as inhabitants of multiple and varied communities Some are known and shared with teachers but many are not Children cannot be left to find their way in the world for as they encounter competing and contradictory worlds their hopes dreams and intentions are shaped Teachers play a key role in students formation by shaping classroom life for all of life is used by God to reveal himself The things taught the priorities set and activities planned the experiences structured and books shared indeed everything in and outside school acts upon and shapes our students Pedagogy is the vehicle for shaping the life of the school Learning requires more than subject content and good teaching The central task of teachers is the development of a pedagogy that shapes life This book offers challenge and guidance as teachers engage in this noble task Old School, New Clothes Ronald E. Hoch, David P. Smith, 2011-09-09 Is much of Christian education in America distinctly Christian Ron Hoch and David Smith say No Instead it is guilty of having adopted an ideology and methodology that strips it of the right to call itself Christian and the ability to fulfill a truly Christian mission The authors claim that the fundamentally humanistic ideology of the West conditions and controls much of what is labeled Christian education By talking about the need to integrate faith and learning focusing on teaching methodology and operating schools in virtually the same way as government run schools many Christian academics betray captivity to the dogma that humans are the measure of all things and need to do what God has already done As a result much of what controls the conversation and practices in Christian academia echoes the humanistic arrogance of the West and offers no substantive alternative to it In Old School New Clothes Hoch and Smith issue a call for Christian academics to own up to their own confession that all reality was created and integrated by God damaged by sin and has already been reintegrated in and by Jesus Thus the emphasis in Christian education ought not to be what Christian educators are doing to redeem the culture but on what God is bringing to the Church in order to redeem sinners Only by recognizing that all human knowledge claims in every sphere are inherently theological and that God is truly seen in and experienced through knowledge of all things will a distinctly Christian education be forged Christian education must primarily emphasize the reintegration or redemption of teachers brought through right knowledge of Jesus that comes through every subject discipline and expressed in a life balanced on Sabbath work and family
