

Kids Rule Academy

Teacher/Parent Communication Info. Form

Child's Name: _____

All of our teachers have I-Pads handy every day while in classroom and outside on the playground for the following reasons:

- instant communications with parents via email, Skype, etc
- "face time" among parents-teachers-students (if necessary and during emergencies)
- for instant access to Google Search to find answers to any questions your children might have
- all the I-Pads will be connected to "Smart" TV's in every classroom, so answers to your children's questions can be displayed immediately
- using I-Pads teachers will be able to document your child's educational progress and share it with you via video or pictures
- simply take videos and pictures of your child's most memorable moments during the day
- teachers will be able to take instant notes about your child's progress or challenges which will help them to prepare monthly report cards and evaluate their work
- teachers will be able to instantly track our calendar and your children's daily activities and schedules which will allow them a lot more time for education and games
- ... and much more as opportunities are endless when the right technology is available.

I-Pads are the property of the Kids Rule Academy and cannot be carried outside the premises. The information collected is used only for educational purposes and is only available to parents and the staff of the Academy. Information is also available to the WI Department of Children and Families upon their request, if such request deemed necessary and reasonable.

LWA understand and not only allow but also encourage teachers to communicate to us as much as possible using Special Feature described above.
