The Praeger Handbook of Faith-Based Schools in the United States, K-12 Thomas C. Hunt, James C. Carper, 2012-08-06 Exploring a subject that is as important as it is divisive this two volume work offers the first current definitive work on the intricacies and issues relative to America's faith based schools The Praeger Handbook of Faith Based Schools in the United States K 12 is an indispensable study at a time when American education is increasingly considered through the lenses of race ethnicity gender and social class With contributions from an impressive array of experts the two volume work provides a historical overview of faith based schooling in the United States as well as a comprehensive treatment of each current faith based school tradition in the nation The first volume examines three types of faith based schools Protestant schools Jewish schools and Evangelical Protestant homeschooling The second volume focuses on Catholic Muslim and Orthodox schools and addresses critical issues common to faith based schools among them state and federal regulation and school choice as well as ethnic cultural confessional and practical factors Perhaps most importantly for those concerned with the questions and controversies that abound in U S education the handbook grapples with outcomes of faith based schooling and with the choices parents face as they consider educational options for their children

Faith-based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools Jim Gleeson, Peta Goldberg, 2019-11-25 Faith based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools examines the relationship between faith based education and whole curriculum at a time when neoliberal ideologies and market values are having a disproportionate influence on national education policies Topics addressed include current challenges and dilemmas faced by Catholic Education leadership Catholic social teaching and its implications for whole curriculum the opinions of teachers in Queensland Catholic schools regarding faith based school identity with particular reference to whole curriculum an associated comparison of these opinions teachers with those of their USA peers school identity and Catholic social teaching in Ontario Catholic schools an action research approach to the integration of Catholic social teaching in Queensland Catholic schools longitudinal study of the views of pre service teachers at a Catholic university regarding the purposes and characteristics of Catholic schools Bringing together professionals and academics from across the world Faith based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools will inspire Catholic and other faith based educators to appreciate the importance and potential of the integration of faith based perspectives such as countercultural Catholic social teaching across the school curriculum in an educationally appropriate manner

Faith Formation of the Laity in Catholic Schools Sister Patricia Helene Earl, 2008-10-01 Two major real world problems prompted this study maintaining the Catholic identity of the Catholic schools and increasing interest in character education Traditionally Catholic schools in the United States were staffed exclusively by priests sisters and brothers Today they are predominately staffed by laypersons This change has influenced the essential religious character and culture of Catholic schools While Religious filter their teachings through their own religious training and emphasize the mission and charisma of Catholic education lay staff often lack the same intensely religious experiences to bring to the teaching learning environment This qualitative interview study explored the influence that a series of spirituality and virtue seminars had on lay teachers perceptions of the Catholic school and character education Religious Education at Schools in Europe Martin Rothgangel, Martin Jäggle, Geir Skeie, 2014 At a time when educational issues have increasingly come to determine the social and political discourse and major reforms of the education system are being discussed and implemented and when migration has become a significant phenomenon contributing to changes in the religious landscape of the European continent it is highly appropriate to focus our attention on the concrete situation regarding religious education
