

"The Coaching Parent fills a significant gap in coaching literature. I was especially gratified to discover how much importance and space is given to the building of self-confidence in all its forms. This is the foundation stone for life and needs to be set early. Who better to do it than parents."

Sir John Whitmore, best selling author of 'Coaching for Performance'

A large, glossy red heart is the central focus, held gently by two hands. The hands are rendered in a light blue-grey color with realistic shading, suggesting a soft, supportive grip. The heart has a slight gradient and a reflective surface. The title 'The Coaching Parent' is written across the heart in a white, serif font. The word 'The' is smaller and positioned above 'Coaching'.
