John P. Davis

The Land Of Promise In The Purpose Of God:

The Gospel and the Land of Promise Tim Bulkeley, Tim Meadowcroft, Peter Walker, 2011-05-13 Today the land of promise is a spark in the tinder dry atmosphere of Middle Eastern affairs Events there continue to wield influence among peoples and in places well beyond the region itself This raises for Christians the acute theological problem of how to relate to the land of promise today and in light of the land of the Bible Our hope is that this volume of essays will contribute to a more informed and theologically coherent response to the Land of Promise It is offered here in the name of peace for all peoples in that place and among those who continue to look to her as a place of promise Abraham's Seed and the Land of Promise

Physician, 1877 The City of God: A translation into English by John Healey Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1909 The Hope of Life After Death M. Jeff Brannon, 2022-11-15 In a world full of suffering and death humans long for abundant life In this ESBT volume Jeff Brannon explores how the hope of life after death is woven throughout Scripture As we follow the biblical themes of creation fall and redemption we begin to understand the doctrine of resurrection and what it means for Christian faith and discipleship Who are the Heirs of the Abrahamic Covenant? John P. Davis, 2022-01-13

Evangelicals debate the answer to the question Who are the heirs of the Abrahamic covenant This book offers a brief summary of the major evangelical approaches to the covenant an exegesis of the covenant and a discussion on some of the hermeneutical issues related to the interpretation of the covenant In this book the Abrahamic covenant is viewed as God's answer to the failures of Gen 1:11 In those chapters the seed of mankind became corrupted through the fall the land was cursed with a consequent loss of man's dominion over it and the divine human relationship was ruptured The Abrahamic covenant restores to all of believing mankind regardless of ethnicity the promise of seed land and divine human relationship

Covenant and God's Purpose for the World Thomas R. Schreiner, 2017-07-14 Behold my covenant is with you and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations Genesis 17:4 Throughout the Bible God has related to his people through covenants It is through these covenant relationships which collectively serve as the foundation for God's promise to bring redemption to his people that we can understand the advancement of his kingdom This book walks through six covenants from Genesis to Revelation helping us grasp the overarching narrative of Scripture and see the salvation God has planned for us since the beginning of time bolstering our faith in God and giving us hope for the future Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series Abraham, Called by God Witness Lee, 1998 A remarkable commentary on the life of Abraham from the Book of Genesis Abraham Called by God presents Abraham as a genuine man fallen but called by God Like him readers are admonished to learn the lessons of faith through trial testing and failure in order to enter into the promises and blessings of God New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L. James, 2017-09-27 What will the final state of the redeemed look like Throughout the history of the church conceptions of the final state have tended to minimize the promise of the new heavens and new earth In contrast to the historical dominance of spiritual heavenly non temporal conceptions of the final state the last two decades have witnessed a rise in conceptions that include the redemption of material earthly and temporal reality These new creation conceptions have included proposals regarding the fulfillment of Old Testament land promises In New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L James argues that in recent new creation conceptions of the final state there is a logical inconsistency between the use of Old Testament texts to inform a renewed earth and the exclusion of the territory of Israel from that renewed earth By examining a select group of new creationists James shows that the exclusion of the territorial restoration of Israel in a new creation conception fails to appreciate the role of the particular territory in Old Testament prophetic texts and results in an inconsistent new creationism

Glory in Romans and the Unified Purpose of God in Redemptive History Donald L. Berry, 2016-02-19 Eschatological glory is a significant motif in Romans that has failed to garner the attention it deserves Donald Berry argues that glory lies at the heart of Paul's redemptive historical framework and is an integral part of the gospel Paul proclaims in Romans For Paul eschatological glory is the realization of God's purpose for Adam and for Israel to see and to show forth the glory of God This divine purpose finds fulfillment in Christ and in the new humanity he creates those who now have hope of the glory of God Rom 5:2 Paul's letter to the Romans provides stunning glimpses into the nature of this eschatological glory and the hope that believers have in Christ Through careful and compelling exegesis Berry brings to light Paul's conception of glory and its place at the center of God's purposes in redemptive history While providing crucial insights into Romans this study also contributes more broadly to Pauline theology and to the field of biblical theology It highlights Paul's understanding of a unified divine purpose that runs through creation and redemption God's desire to display his nature and character in all of creation through image bearers who share in and reflect his glory

The Land Without Promise Katerina Koci, 2021-07-29 Katerina Koci charts the development of the promised land motif starting from its biblical roots and examining its reception over the centuries until the present day As her cornerstone Koci uses Hans Georg Gadamer's claim that there are two complementary paths towards understanding and knowledge science and art Thus to be faithful to the creed of the great hermeneutist Koci ventures into both topics arguing that while science sets out historical critical analysis of the promised land motif in the Hebrew Bible and its later receptions art enriches the interpretation with its literary illustrations This volume places particular focus on American contexts since the concept of the promised land is so deeply intertwined with American religious political mythologies and with the art of John Steinbeck and Walter Brueggemann in particular By discussing artistic interpretation in biblical hermeneutics the context and reception of Genesis 15:7 and Exodus 3:8 in the Hebrew Bible and New Testament and the history of the promised land motif and its interpretations Koci argues that artistic receptions of biblical motifs are crucial for biblical scholarship in opening new hermeneutical and thematic horizons
