The Christian Use Of Time:

Introduction to Christian Worship Third Edition James F. White, 2010-09-01 Introduction to Christian Worship Third Edition traces the development of the major forms of Christian worship and includes discussion of the newest service books of the principal churches of North America and the British Isles This staple of liturgical history is used widely in Protestant seminaries and is read by clergy and laity alike as an accurate informative and accessible introduction to all aspects of Christian worship This revision keeps pace with the latest scholarship and includes more maps tables woodcuts and photographs

The New Handbook of the Christian Year Hoyt L. Hickman, 2010-10-01 The New Handbook of the Christian Year Second Edition by Hoyt L Hickman Don E Saliers Laurence Hull Stookey and James F White Lectionary prayers responses and Communion services updated for consistency with books of worship from several denominations Includes glossary of Christian symbols glossary of liturgical terms annotated bibliography index of Scripture readings index of Psalms and an ecumenical service for the sacrament of the Lord s Supper

On Becoming a Catholic: The Challenge of Christian Initiation Regis A. Duffy, 2010-05-01 This handbook to the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults RCIA written by a renowned religious educator and theologian invites converts the clergy and all those engaged in the catechumenal process to appreciate anew the richness of the Catholic faith Regis Duffy articulates the requirements for becoming and remaining a full Christian committed to gospel values on every level of life to the building of the Kingdom of God On Becoming a Catholic is a complete introduction to the essentials of the catechumenal process and clearly relates what the church teaches to its members Duffy s exposition stresses The theology of the Cross as the root of all Christian conversion and formation and its meaning for individual Christians and parish life The Word of God as prophetic Word in parish familial and personal lives learning to recognize the Lord in unexpected places of our lives and world and nurture openness and responsiveness to the Word How to live and act as one marked by the Cross and the Word of God participating in a conversion process that profoundly changes our priorities values lifestyle and most importantly our involvement in worship and sacraments What it means to be a Christian community discovering the meaning of the Liturgical Year and the Church s role as teacher The value of Lenten observance the meaning of Good Friday and the centrality of the Easter event as basis for a practical theology of our redemptive need and God s enduring response How honest Eucharistic participation embodies a renewed sense of personal commitment to Christ and sense of mission and ministry in the community

The Christian Invention of Time Simon Goldhill, 2022-02-03 Time is integral to human culture Over the last two centuries people s relationship with time has been transformed through industrialisation trade and technology But the first such life changing transformation under Christianity s influence happened in late antiquity It was then that time began to be conceptualised in new ways with discussion of eternity life after death and the end of days Individuals also began to experience time differently from the seven day week to the order of daily prayer and the festal calendar of Christmas and Easter With trademark flair and versatility world renowned classicist Simon Goldhill uncovers this change in thinking He explores how it took shape in the literary writing of late antiquity and how it resonates even today His bold new cultural history will appeal to scholars and students of classics cultural history literary studies and early Christianity alike The Literature and History of New Testament Times John Gresham Machen,2020-08-15 Reproduction of the original The Literature and History of New Testament Times by John Gresham Machen Ephraim Radner, Hosean Wilderness, and the Church in the Post-Christendom West Amy J. Erickson,2020-03-23 Ephraim Radner Hosean Wilderness and the Church in the Post Christendom West offers the first monograph length treatment of the compelling and perplexing contemporary Anglican theologian Ephraim Radner While unravelling his distinctive approach to biblical hermeneutics and ecclesiology it queries the state of today s secularized church through a theological interpretation of an equally enigmatic writer the prophet Hosea It concludes that an eschatological posture of waiting and a heuristic of poesis should dictate the church s shape for an era in which God is stripping the church of its foregoing institutional forms On Being the Church of Jesus Christ in Tumultuous Times Joe R. Jones,2005-08-22 This collection of essays sermons and prayers urges the church today to be the sort of community that sustains a vigorous and continuing conversation within itself as to who has called it into being to whom it is responsible and what it is called to be and to do Jones reminds the church that it is an alternative political community called into being by the Gospel This collection explores what it means to be such an alternative community in tumultuous times in times when it is tempting to look to the world for answers and to confuse loyalty to the nation state with loyalty to God A theme throughout all the writings is that the church is the necessary context for becoming and being a Christian The Tyranny of Time Robert Banks,1997-03-04 The problem of too little time says Robert Banks is a real one The notion of increased leisure time is a myth From a distinctly Christian perspective Banks explains how we can break out of the time prison at work and at church as individuals and as families He emphasizes who we are over what we do and shows how we can develop a sense of personal and social rhythms Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1924 Reels for 1973 include Time index 1973 The Christian Witness, and Church Member's Magazine ,
